Our management team is dedicated to this policy with respect to recruitment, hiring, placement, promotion, transfer, training, compensation, benefits, employee activities and general treatment during employment.

The City will endeavor to make a reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of qualified employees with disabilities unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of our business. If you need assistance to perform your job duties because of a physical or mental condition, please notify the Human Resources Office and your immediate supervisor.

The City will endeavor to accommodate the religious beliefs of its employees to the extent such accommodation does not pose an undue hardship on the City's operations. If you wish to request such an accommodation, please speak to your immediate supervisor and the Human Resources Office.

Any employees with questions or concerns about equal employment opportunities in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of the Human Resources Office. The City will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who raise issues of equal employment opportunity. If an employee feels he or she has been subjected to any such retaliation, he or she should bring it to the attention of the Human Resources Office. Violation of this policy including any improper retaliatory conduct will lead to discipline, up to and including termination.

It is City of Alamogordo's policy to prohibit intentional and unintentional harassment of any individual by another person on the basis of any protected classification including, but not limited to, race, color, national origin, disability, religion, marital status, veteran status, sexual orientation or age. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that no one harasses another individual.

If an employee feels that he or she has been subjected to conduct which violates this policy, he or she should immediately report the matter to the employee's supervisor. If the employee is unable for any reason to contact this person, or if the employee has not received a response within five (5) business days after reporting any incident of what the employee perceives to be harassment, the employee should contact the Human Resources Office. Human Resources will consult with the Department Director. If the person toward whom the complaint is directed is one of the individuals indicated above, the employee should contact the City Attorney's Office or the City Manager's Office. Every report of perceived harassment will be investigated. Corrective action will be taken where appropriate. All complaints will be kept confidential to the extent possible, but confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

In addition, the City will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who report unwelcome conduct to management or who cooperate in the investigations of such reports in accordance with this policy. If an employee feels he or she has been subjected to any such retaliation, he or she should report it in the same manner in which the employee would report a claim of perceived harassment under this policy. Violation of this policy including any improper retaliatory conduct will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

1-14. Sexual Harassment

It is City of Alamogordo's policy to prohibit harassment of any employee by any supervisor, employee, citizen or vendor on the basis of sex or gender. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all City employees are free from sexual harassment. While it is not easy to define precisely what types of conduct could constitute sexual harassment, examples of prohibited behavior include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, obscene gestures, displaying sexually graphic magazines, calendars or posters, sending sexually explicit e-mails, text messages and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, such as uninvited touching of a sexual nature or sexually related comments. Depending upon the circumstances, improper conduct also can include sexual joking, vulgar or offensive conversation or jokes, commenting about an employee's physical appearance, conversation about your own or someone else's sex life, or teasing or other conduct directed toward a person because of his or her gender which is sufficiently severe or pervasive to create an unprofessional and hostile working environment.

If the employee feels that he or she has been subjected to conduct which violates this policy, the employee should immediately report the matter to the employee's supervisor. If unable for any reason to contact this person, or if the employee has not received a response within five (5) business days after reporting any incident of perceived harassment, the employee should contact the Human Resources Office. Human Resources will consult with the Department Director. If the person toward whom the complaint is directed is one of the individuals indicated above, the employee should contact the City Attorney's Office or the City Manager's Office. Every report of perceived harassment will be investigated. Corrective action will be taken where appropriate. All complaints will be kept confidential to the extent possible, but confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

In addition, the City will not allow any form of retaliation against individuals who report unwelcome conduct to management or who cooperate in the investigations of such reports in accordance with this policy. If an employee feels that he or she has been subjected to any such retaliation, the employee should report it in the same manner in which a claim of perceived harassment would be reported under this policy. Violation of this policy including any improper retaliatory conduct will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

1-15. Workplace Violence

City of Alamogordo is strongly committed to providing a safe workplace. The purpose of this policy is to minimize the risk of personal injury to employees and damage to City and personal property.

City of Alamogordo prohibits employees from engaging in any physical confrontation with a violent or potentially violent individual. However, we do expect and encourage employees to exercise reasonable judgment in identifying potentially dangerous situations.

Prohibited Conduct

Threats, threatening language or any other acts of aggression or violence made toward or by any City employee will not be tolerated. For purposes of this policy, a threat includes any verbal or physical harassment or abuse, any attempt at intimidating or instilling fear in others, menacing gestures, flashing of weapons, stalking or any other hostile, aggressive, injurious or destructive action undertaken for the purpose of domination or intimidation.

Procedures for Reporting a Threat

All potentially dangerous situations, including threats by co-workers, should be reported immediately to any member of management with whom the employee feels comfortable. Emergency 911 should be contacted if needed. Reports of threats may be maintained as confidential to the extent maintaining confidentiality does not impede the ability to investigate and respond to the complaints. All threats will be promptly investigated. No employee will be subjected to retaliation, intimidation or disciplinary action as a result of reporting a threat in good faith under this policy.

If the City determines, after an appropriate good faith investigation, that someone has violated this policy, the City will take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination.

If an employee is the recipient of a threat made by an outside party, that employee should follow the steps detailed in this section. It is important for the City to be aware of any potential danger, and to take effective measures to protect everyone from the threat of a violent act by an employee or by anyone else.

1-16. Anti-Bullying

City of Alamogordo prohibits any form of bullying. Bullying is an act of aggression causing embarrassment, pain, or discomfort to someone. It can take a number of forms including, but not limited to physical, verbal, making gestures, or exclusion. It may be an abuse of power. It can be planned and organized, or it may be unintentional. It may be perpetrated by individuals or by groups of individuals.

The City is opposed to bullying and it will not be tolerated. If an employee feels that he or she has been subject to conduct in the workplace which violates this policy, he or she should immediately report the matter to the employee's supervisor. If the employee is unable for any reason to contact this person, or if the employee has not received a response within five (5) business days after reporting any incident of what the employee perceives to be bullying, the employee should contact the Human Resources Office. Human Resources will consult with the Department Director. If the person toward whom the complaint is directed is one of the individuals indicated above, the employee should contact the City Attorney's Office or the City Manager's Office.

1-17. Alternative Dispute Resolution

The City encourages the resolution of legal claims, including employment claims, through alternative dispute resolution ("ADR"), and intends to use ADR in disputes. Included below is a preliminary step which encourages, whenever possible, the use of mediation to resolve conflict. This step is intended to urge the consideration of the option of mediation, but in no way limits or preempts other remedies to which employees and the City are entitled by law.

When possible, the Department Head considering corrective action may file a request for mediation with the Human Resource office prior to initiating corrective action. When mediation is pursued, participation in such session will be limited to the two (2) parties involved, the City Attorney's Office, and the mediator. Other parties may be included, exclusive of any representative or attorney, at the discretion of the mediator. Further, when mediation is pursued, all time limitations will be tolled as of the filing of the request for mediation with the Human Resource's Office and until such time as the mediation is completed. If a resolution is not reached through mediation, disciplinary action may ensue. A Department Head considering termination may not use mediation.

Where unusual conditions exist that affect the market value of a position, the salary may be adjusted accordingly by the City Manager.

Classification and Re-Classification of Positions.

An internal and external analysis will be conducted by Human Resources for any new position or existing position that has experienced significant changes in duties or qualification requirements. Human Resources will provide a recommendation to the Department Director and City Manager for approval.

Holiday Pay

When a non-exempt employee works on the actual holiday, the employee shall be compensated at a holiday pay rate for all hours worked on the actual holiday. All time worked on actual holidays will be paid at one and one half (1 ½) times the normal hourly rate, in addition to the holiday leave pay if applicable. For example, if Christmas Day is Sunday and the City observes the holiday on Monday, the employee who is scheduled to work on Sunday, the ACTUAL holiday, will receive the holiday pay rate of one and half (1 ½) times the normal hourly rate. The employee who works on Monday, the observed holiday, will receive the eight (8) hours of holiday leave pay and regular pay for the time they work on the observed holiday.

In cases where an employee works both the actual holiday and the City observed holiday, only the actual holiday will be considered a holiday for the purposes of using the holiday pay rate.

For example, if an employee's shift begins at 7:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve and continues through 7:00 a.m. on Christmas morning, they will not be considered to have worked the holiday. If the employee works from 7:00 p.m. on Christmas Day to 7:00 a.m. on December 26th, they will be considered to have worked the holiday for the entire shift.

An employee who is selected for a transfer or promotion shall commence another six (6) month probationary period. This provision includes sworn Police positions, Firefighters, and Fire command personnel only if transferring or promoting within the same Department. Employees commencing a subsequent probationary period will be eligible for any leave benefits they were entitled to prior to the transfer or promotion.

At the conclusion of the probation period it shall take an affirmative action through completion of a written Performance Evaluation, and a Personnel Status Form to place the employee in a regular non-probationary status.

If timely affirmative action is not taken the employee will be considered to have successfully completed their probationary period on the effective date of the probationary period end date. The Evaluation and Personnel Status Form will still be required.

The City may extend the probationary period if it desires. Any extension of the probationary period may be done after a written Evaluation, a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), and a Personnel Status Form are completed prior to the conclusion of the probationary period. City of Alamogordo is typically open for business from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday. However, some Departments of the City provide services outside of the typical business week. Employees will be assigned a work schedule and will be expected to begin and end work according to the schedule. To accommodate the needs of our citizens, the City reserves the right to change individual work schedules on either a short-term or long-term basis.

4-7. Timekeeping Procedures

Employees must record their actual time worked for payroll and benefit purposes. Non-exempt employees must record the actual time the performance of work begins and ends, as well as the beginning and ending time of any departure from work for any non-work-related reason. Exceptions or corrections to the work schedule will be submitted on forms as prescribed by management.

Non-exempt employees may not start work until their scheduled starting time and may not work beyond their scheduled work hours without prior approval.

Exempt employees are required to record absences from work.

Altering, falsifying or tampering with time records is prohibited and subjects the employee to discipline, up to and including termination.

It is the employee's responsibility to sign time records to certify the accuracy of all time recorded. Any errors in the time record should be reported immediately to a Supervisor or Time Keeper, so the City can resolve the matter quickly and amicably.

4-8. Overtime

During periods of extremely high activity, additional work may be required. Supervisors are responsible for monitoring business activity and requesting overtime work if it is necessary. Effort will be made to provide employees with adequate advance notice in such situations.

Any non-exempt employee who works overtime will be compensated at the rate of one and one-half times (1.5) his or her normal hourly wage for all time worked in excess of forty (40) hours each week, unless otherwise required by law.

Employees may work overtime only with prior management authorization.

For purposes of calculating overtime for non-exempt employees, the workweek begins at 12:01am on Monday and ends 168 hours later on Sunday at midnight.

Exempt employees are not eligible for overtime or comp time compensation.

4-9. Safe Harbor Policy for Exempt Employees

It is our policy and practice to accurately compensate employees and to do so in compliance with all applicable state and federal laws. To ensure proper payment and that no improper deductions are made, employees must review pay stubs promptly to identify and report all errors.

Employees classified as exempt salaried employees will receive a salary which is intended to compensate them for all hours they may work for City of Alamogordo. This salary will be established at the time of hire or classification as an exempt employee. While it may be subject to review and modification from time to time, such as during salary review times, the salary will be a predetermined amount that will not be subject to deductions for variations in the quantity or quality of the work performed.

Under federal and state law, salary is subject to certain deductions. For example, unless state law requires otherwise, salary can be reduced for the following reasons:

- Full-day absences for personal reasons;
- Full-day absences for sickness or disability;
- Full-day disciplinary suspensions for infractions of any City policy and/or City of Alamogordo Ordinances;
- Family and Medical Leave absences (either full- or partial-day absences);
- To offset amounts received as payment from the court for jury and witness fees or from the military as military pay;
- The first or last week of employment in the event the employee works less than a full week; and
- Any full work week in which the employee does not perform any work.

Salary may also be reduced for certain types of deductions such as a portion of health, dental or life insurance premiums; state, federal or local taxes; social security; or contributions to a deferred compensation or pension plan.

In any work week in which the employee performed any work, salary will not be reduced for any of the following reasons:

- Partial day absences for personal reasons, sickness or disability;
- An absence because the employer has decided to close a facility on a scheduled work day;
- Absences for jury duty, attendance as a witness, or military leave in any week in which the employee performed any work (subject to any offsets as set forth above); and
- Any other deductions prohibited by state or federal law.

However, unless state law provides otherwise, deductions may be made to accrued leave for full- or partial-day absences for personal reasons, sickness or disability.

Exempt employees who are absent from the workplace less than a full day, but more than half of their scheduled work day are required to use accrued leave for the number of hours equal to half of the work day.

If the employee believes he or she has been subject to any improper deductions, the employee should immediately report the matter to a supervisor. If the supervisor is unavailable or if the employee believes it would be inappropriate to contact that person (or if the employee has not received a prompt and fully acceptable reply), he or she should immediately contact Department Timekeeper, Human Resources, or any other supervisor in City of Alamogordo with whom the employee feels comfortable.

4-10. Paychecks

The employee will be paid bi-weekly for all the time worked during the previous pay period.

Payroll stubs itemize deductions made from gross earnings. By law, the City is required to make deductions for Social Security, federal income tax and any other appropriate taxes. These required deductions also may include any court-ordered garnishments. Payroll stubs also will differentiate between regular pay received and overtime pay received.

If there is an error in an employee's pay, the employee should bring the matter to the attention of their supervisor or time keeper immediately so the City can resolve the matter quickly and amicably.

Paychecks will be given only to the employee, unless he or she requests that it be mailed, or authorizes in writing another person on the City's designated form, to accept the check.

4-11. Direct Deposit

City of Alamogordo encourages employees to use direct deposit for payroll purposes. Authorization forms are available from Human Resources or Payroll.

The first and last check can be an actual check if requested by the employee at least seven (7) days prior to pay day.

4-12. Early Release of Paycheck

City of Alamogordo will permit the early release of a paycheck prior to a scheduled pay date. Any early release will not be an advance payment of services not rendered as prohibited by Section 30-23-2 NMSA1978.

Requests for the early release must be submitted on the City designated form and have the prior approval of the Department Director, Finance Director, and City Manager.

Approved forms will be submitted to Payroll for processing.

4-13. Investigations, Inquiries, and Audits

The City reserves the right to conduct appropriate investigations, inquiries or audits for the purpose of monitoring the adherence of all City employees to all policies and procedures.

City employees are required to be truthful and forthcoming when responding to an inquiry. City employees shall maintain confidentiality while the investigation or inquiry is being conducted and shall not attempt to interfere or otherwise influence the investigation. Violations of this policy may result in corrective action.

City employees must cooperate with investigations pursuant to Garrity Rights originating from a 1967 United States Supreme Court decision, Garrity v. New Jersey.

The complainant will receive notice of completion of the investigation; however, the complainant is not privy as to what action was taken, if any.

Requests for copies of investigations are made through the City Clerk's Office pursuant to the New Mexico Information and Public Records Act. City employees receiving corrective action involving a financial impact may receive a copy of the investigation upon request in compliance with due process.

4-14. False Statements/Fraud

No employee shall willfully or corruptly;

- make any false statement; or
- falsify or alter official documents/records; or
- mark rating or report falsely with regard to any test, certification, appointment or investigation; or
- in any manner commit any fraud, conceal any wrongdoing, or knowingly withhold information about wrongdoing in connection with employment with the City or with work-related conduct of any City employee.

4-15. Corrective Action Procedures

Policy

It shall be the policy of the City to administer corrective action fairly, reasonably, and impartially. Employees and the City are best served when corrective action is administered to correct actions rather than to punish.

Grounds for Corrective Action

The continued employment of City employees shall be based on reasonable standards of job performance and personal and professional conduct. Refusal to meet these standards or comply with City policies shall constitute just cause for corrective action including, but not limited to Alternative Dispute Resolution, verbal or written reprimands, suspensions, demotions, termination, arrest, and/or prosecution.

Type of Action Administered

Corrective action is not primarily intended to be punitive, but rather to maintain the efficiency and integrity of City service. The degree of corrective action administered will depend on the nature and severity of the infraction and the employee's prior record. Management has the right to bypass the progressive discipline process. Corrective action shall be in accordance with any applicable City policies and procedures as well as local, state, and federal laws and regulations.

It is the responsibility of each supervisor and department head to evaluate thoroughly the circumstances and facts as objectively as possible, follow the corrective action procedures outlined herein, and apply the most suitable form of corrective action.

Should a City employee be subsequently charged and convicted of a crime following corrective action, the City reserves the right to take additional corrective action up to and including termination, as allowed by law.

The Corrective Action form is required for all corrective actions.

See Section 1-15. for Alternative Dispute Resolution information.

Corrective Action Procedures

Depending on the type of action administered, there are different procedures required for issuing corrective action. Some of these procedures are required by law.

In any major corrective action, the pertinent information shall be reviewed with the employee specifying the following: The cause for discipline, the specific reasons supporting the cause, the discipline to be imposed, the effective date, and the right of the employee to be heard.

Corrective actions in the form of verbal warnings and written reprimands are the responsibility of each supervisor and do not require intervention by the Human Resources Department. Supervisors shall inform the Department Director of verbal warnings and written reprimands given and the procedure outlined in the Verbal Warning and Written Reprimand section(s) will be followed.

All corrective actions involving suspensions without pay, demotions, or termination require consultation with the Human Resource Director prior to corrective action being administered to ensure actions are being administered fairly, consistently, and in compliance with applicable laws.

Verbal Warning

This type of corrective action should be applied to infractions of a relatively minor degree or in situations where the employee's performance needs to be discussed. The verbal warning should be given in private, and the reason and date for the warning documented in writing. Supervisors should inform the employee that the supervisor is issuing a verbal warning, that the employee is being given an opportunity to correct the condition, and if the condition is not corrected, the person will be subject to more severe corrective action. Records of verbal warnings will be kept by the supervisor or manager. A documented verbal may be used as a basis for further progressive discipline.

Written Reprimand

This notice will be issued in the event the employee continues to disregard a verbal warning or if the infraction is severe enough to warrant a written reprimand.

The reprimand shall state:

- the nature of the infraction;
- what action must be taken by the employee to avoid further corrective action, up to and including termination;
- when correction of the infraction is expected;
- policies or procedures violated; and
- and what the employee's rights are in the corrective action process.

A copy of the written reprimand is to be given to the employee at the time of the discussion of the corrective action. The employee shall sign the written reprimand to acknowledge receipt. A copy, signed by the employee, will be forwarded to the Human Resource Department and placed in the employee's personnel file. If the employee refuses to sign the acknowledgment, then the supervisor and one other witness, of a supervisory capacity, shall note on the reprimand that the employee received a copy thereof and refused to sign it.

Suspension Without Pay

The Department Director may take this form of corrective action only after consultation with the Human Resource Director as a result of a severe infraction of policies or for repeated violations. Suspensions shall not exceed thirty (30) work days. Employees serving a suspension without pay remain eligible for paid observed holidays occurring during the suspension; however, the paid holiday shall not also satisfy an imposed day of suspension without pay.

FLSA exempt employees may be suspended for one (1) or more full days for infractions of City of Alamogordo Ordinances, Citywide and Departmental policies and procedures, and any applicable laws regulated by an outside authority.

Suspensions Pending Investigation

An employee may be suspended in cases where it is necessary to investigate a situation to determine what corrective action may be justified. This suspension gives the supervisor the opportunity to investigate the situation when it is serious enough for the employee to be removed from the work environment. Investigatory suspensions may be with or without pay. If after the investigation, it is determined that the employee was not guilty of any violation, the employee will be returned to work, paid for any lost time, and cleared of all charges. If, however, the employee is found in violation, then the appropriate corrective action may take effect on the date that the suspension began. In any case, the employee remains eligible for paid observed holidays during the suspension.

Demotions

Demotion may be used in those instances where an employee is unwilling or unable to perform the responsibilities of the position. Demotion is not to be used as a substitute for dismissal, when dismissal is warranted.

The pay rate of an employee who is demoted may be reduced to the appropriate rate of the new pay grade of the position into which the employee is demoted.

Involuntary Termination

Employees may be recommended for termination in instances involving, but not limited to, insubordination, theft, illegal or destructive acts. An involuntary termination will require the Human Resource Director consultation prior to being administered by the Department Director. An employee may also be dismissed after repeated offenses of a less serious nature if the supervisor has documented the offenses and appropriate behavioral changes have not resulted from previous corrective action.

Probationary employees may be terminated at any time and may not appeal this action.

Informal Appeal

Written reprimands may be appealed informally to the employee's Department Director. The employee must present a written appeal to his or her department Director within seven (7) calendar days of the disciplinary action. The Director shall attempt to resolve the matter within seven (7) calendar days after it has been presented to him or her. The Department Director shall provide his or her decision to the employee in writing. The decision of the Department Director shall be final. Verbal warnings cannot be appealed informally.

Pre-Disciplinary Hearing Process

A pre-disciplinary hearing shall be made available to any employee who will be subject to a demotion, suspension without pay, or termination. The pre-disciplinary hearing process shall be as follows:

A. An employee shall be provided, in writing, with a notice citing the specific incidents constituting just cause; citing the violation of any statute, ordinance, rule or policy; provide an explanation of the documentation, evidence and/or facts relied upon by the department; specify the contemplated disciplinary action; and state that the employee has seven (7) calendar days from service of the notice of contemplated disciplinary action to respond in writing as to why the proposed action should not be taken, or to request a pre-disciplinary hearing with the Department Director, or designee, for that same purpose. A request for a pre-disciplinary hearing will not preclude the employee from submitting his or her written version and mitigating evidence to the Department Director, or designee, no later than the start of the pre-disciplinary hearing. All hearing requests shall be submitted in writing to the Human Resources Director or designee.

B. If the proposed discipline is termination, the employee is not eligible for administrative leave with pay or paid holidays during the pre-disciplinary process. However, if the Director does not uphold the proposed termination, the employee will be back-paid for this period.

C. If the employee requests a pre-disciplinary hearing, the Human Resources Director or designee shall schedule a hearing before the Department Director, or designee, within seven (7) calendar days, and prior to imposing any corrective action. The corrective action may be imposed prior to the completion of the seven (7) calendar days if the employee elects not to appeal; however, only upon mutual agreement between the supervisor and the employee, and said agreement is documented in writing. Union represented employees shall have the right to union representation at the pre-disciplinary hearing. Non-represented employees may be accompanied by one personal representative. The employee is responsible for arranging said representation, but must notify the Human Resources Director or designee they intend to do so at least two (2) business days before the hearing. The pre-disciplinary hearing is non-adversarial and, if the employee has a person accompany him or her to the hearing, that person is not entitled to be an advocate. The Department Director or designee, the Human Resources Director or designee, the employee and if the employee so chooses, their representative, shall be in attendance for the pre-disciplinary hearing. The supervisor initiating the proposed corrective action shall also attend unless the employee has requested otherwise. Legal representation or paralegals thereof, are not permitted to attend the pre-disciplinary hearing. Other Department Directors are not permitted to serve as the employee's personal representative.

D. The department's pre-disciplinary notice provided to the employee prior to the hearing shall be sufficient to apprise the employee of the basis for the proposed disciplinary action. Reliance upon the contents of the pre-disciplinary notice shall not limit the City at subsequent hearings from presenting witnesses testimony and additional documentation not submitted prior to or during the pre-disciplinary hearing. The purpose of a pre-disciplinary hearing is to give the employee the opportunity to respond to the pre-disciplinary notice and to provide information why the proposed action should not be taken. The rules of evidence shall not apply to the pre-disciplinary hearing, nor are there specific procedural regulations for the conduct of the hearing. Additionally, the hearing shall not be recorded by audio or visual equipment nor should there be any attempt to make a verbatim record of the proceedings.

E. Should the Department Director, or designee, uphold the proposed discipline following the pre-disciplinary hearing, written notice of discipline shall be given to the employee. The Department Director, or designee, may either uphold the recommended corrective action, or impose a lessor or more severe action as deemed appropriate by the Director's or designee's findings. In any case, a written response will be provided to the employee within seven (7) calendar days. Such notice shall include a general statement of the findings of the hearing and notice of the employee's right to appeal to the City Manager. If the sustained discipline is termination, the termination will be effective upon notice being given to the employee. The official termination date shall be documented in the employee's employment record with the date the employee received notice from the Director or designee. In the case of termination, a formal appeal to the City Manager shall be considered a post-termination hearing. All other corrective actions will be imposed as described in the notice, unless the employee and Department Director otherwise agree.

In the interest of providing a fair and unbiased process, the Department Director of the employee receiving the corrective action may be substituted with another City Director or the Assistant City Manager. This substitution shall be allowed in cases when there is a conflict or when the Department Director is the supervisor imposing the corrective action.

Nothing in these procedures is designed to supersede or prevent an employee from availing himself or herself of the City's grievance procedure.

Formal Appeal

Any employee who is disciplined following the pre-disciplinary hearing may appeal the decision of the Department Director to the City Manager, or designee. This formal appeal must be received in writing by the Human Resources Director or designee within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the decision of the Department Director. The City Manager, or designee, shall schedule and hold a hearing within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the appeal from the employee. The employee may have legal representation and or witnesses at the hearing to present evidence that support the appeal, but must notify the Human Resource Director that they intend to do so at least two (2) business days before the hearing. The Formal Appeal Hearing shall be recorded as a verbatim record of the proceedings. The City Manager, or designee must render a written decision within seven (7) calendar days following the hearing. The decision of the City Manager, or designee will be final and binding. Should a termination result, the termination date will be the same date as determined by the Director as documented in the determination notice following the pre-disciplinary hearing. If a decision to terminate is over turned, administrative pay will be paid.

In the interest of providing a fair and unbiased process, the City Manager may be substituted with another City Director or the Assistant City Manager for the purpose of a formal appeal. This substitution shall be allowed in cases when there is a conflict or when the City Manager is the supervisor imposing the corrective action. An external hearing officer may also be utilized upon mutual agreement of the City and the employee.

At-Will employees are ineligible for the appeal process except as provided for in their respective employment contract.

Extension of Time Limits

Any of the time limits in the corrective action procedure may be extended upon mutual agreement. However, if no action is taken within one (1) calendar year from the date of the appeal to the Department Director or the City Manager the Appeal will be considered closed and the action upheld.

4-16. Grievance Process

It is the policy of the City to afford all employees a means of obtaining further consideration of problems when they remain unresolved at the supervisory level, and to establish policies and procedures that provide for timely resolution of grievances. Included below is a preliminary step which encourages, whenever possible, the use of mediation to resolve conflict. This step is intended to urge the consideration of the option of mediation, but in no way limits or preempts other remedies to which employees and the City are entitled by law. Whenever possible and appropriate, the employee considering filing a grievance may file a request for mediation with the Human Resources Department prior to initiating the grievance process outlined below. When mediation is pursued, participation in such session will be limited to the two parties involved and the mediator. Other parties may be included, exclusive of any representative or attorney, at the discretion of the mediator. Further, when mediation is pursued, all time limitations will be tolled as of the filing of the request for mediation with the Human Resources office and until such time as the mediation is completed. If agreement is not reached through mediation, the procedures outlined below may ensue.

A "grievance" shall mean a complaint, made by a regular full-time or regular part-time employee, which alleges an unjust application, interpretation, or violation of the rules and regulations of the City or Department that:

1. a specific administrative act was arbitrary or capricious and adversely affected the employee's then-existing terms or conditions of employment, and/or;
2. involves improper discrimination or treatment prohibited by the Constitution of the United States and State of New Mexico, or federal and or state statutes, and/or;
3. a violation of applicable City rules, regulations, or personnel policies which adversely affected the employee's then-existing terms or conditions of employment.

For the purposes of this policy, an act is not arbitrary or capricious if the decision-maker exercised reasoned judgment.

The following matters are not grievable:

- lay-offs,
- changes in policies and procedures,
- performance evaluations,
- transfers or promotions,
- changes in duty stations or shifts,
- all corrective actions,
- levels of compensation, and/or,
- other matters of inherent management rights, unless they are directly related or a direct consequence of a grievable matter.

If a question arises with regard to whether an issue is a grievable matter the City Manager reserves the right to make that determination.

Strict adherence to the procedures outlined below is mandatory for all concerned, except that time limits may be extended upon mutual agreement or good cause shown.

Reasonable attempts will be made to resolve the grievance to the mutual satisfaction of the employee and the City.

STEP 1: An employee must present a grievance in writing within seven (7) calendar days of its alleged occurrence or within seven (7) calendar days of when the employee should have reasonably known of the occurrence to the employee's immediate supervisor and Department Director, who shall attempt to resolve it within seven (7) calendar days after it is presented to them.

STEP 2: If the employee is not satisfied with the decision of the Department Director, the employee must submit the grievance, in writing, to the City Manager's office within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the Department Director's decision. This written notice shall include the following:

- A. Statement of the grievance and relevant facts.
- B. Specific remedy sought.
- C. Reasons for the dissatisfaction with Department Director's decision.

Note: Issues not presented to the Department Director will not be considered in an appeal to the City Manager. If the grievance presented does not include the specified requirements in Step 2, A.-C., the grievance will be rejected.

STEP 3: Within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the employee's written grievance the City Manager shall schedule a hearing. The employee may be accompanied by another employee or union conferee. Such conferee must attain a release from their supervisor and will be considered in pay status during their regularly scheduled workday hours. The purpose of the hearing is for the employee to present any information pertinent to the grievance. The hearing will be recorded. The employee and Department Director may call witnesses to testify about information relevant to the grievance. Within seven (7) calendar days of the hearing the City Manager will provide the employee a written decision. The decision of the City Manager will be final and binding.

Grievances filed against the City Manager shall follow the same process and timeline as grievances against other employees, as described above in Section 4-16 Grievance Process. However, the grievance shall be filed with the Human Resources Director or designee, or the Assistant City Manager or designee. The Human Resources Director or Assistant City Manager, or designee thereof, shall provide the grievance to the City Commission under limited personnel matters in executive session at the next scheduled Commission meeting. The Commission shall provide direction to the Human Resources Director or Assistant City Manager, or designee thereof, for any action deemed necessary, if any. Should an investigation be required, the Commission shall provide direction to staff with regard to whether an internal or external investigation will be conducted. The Human Resources Director or designee shall provide any results to Commission in executive session. The Commission's decision shall be final and binding. If required by law, City Commission shall provide notice to the public of their direction to staff in open session following executive session.

Protection Against Retaliation - The City and its employees will not retaliate against any person who, in good faith, uses the grievance procedure.

4-17. Classification of Positions

All positions/classifications in the City's service shall be grouped into classes and each class shall include those positions sufficiently similar as to character of work, required performance, and level of responsibility, so that:

- A. An equivalent level of training, experience, knowledge, and ability, and other qualifications may be required of incumbents;
- B. Comparable tests of such qualifications may be used to select incumbents; and
- C. The same salary range will apply with equity under substantially equal working conditions; or
- D. Positions that are unusual for reasons such as market demand will be classified according to reasonable market standards.

Position descriptions and job specifications shall be maintained by the Human Resource Office for all positions. Any changes to position descriptions must be submitted to Human Resources. Requests that result in a position's reclassification will require the City Manager's approval.

The position descriptions should include: Job Title, Department, Division, FLSA Status, Effective Date, Summary of Position, Supervision Received, Supervision Exercised, Essential Functions, Other Duties, Minimum Qualifications, Special Requirements, Working Conditions, History Summary, Job Hazard Analysis, and Approval section.

Reclassification Procedure

Revision of position descriptions and re-allocations within the classification plan shall be made as often as is necessary to provide current information on positions and classes.

It shall be the duty of the Human Resource office to examine the nature of all positions and to allocate them to existing or newly created classes, to make changes in the duties and responsibilities of existing positions.

When a new position is requested by a Department Director or the duties of an old position are substantially changed, the Department Director shall submit a change request form and written recommendation to the Human Resource Office including justification for the reclassification, emphasizing changes in position responsibilities or requirements for qualifications (i.e., experience, education, certifications, etc.).

The request will be reviewed by the Human Resource Office. The Human Resource Department will use a standardized method in reviewing new position descriptions or requests for changes to existing position descriptions. This method will value the position responsibilities, requirements and qualifications to accurately classify or reclassify the position.

If the request is justified, the budget impact will be determined, and a recommendation will be made to the City Manager. The City Manager shall be the final decision-maker for all reclassification requests. If approved, the Human Resource Office will take the necessary steps to implement the reclassification. Reclassification of a position currently filled and not vacant shall not require the position be posted for recruitment. No reclassification involving an upgrade of salary that would overspend the authorized department budget will be approved without City Commission approval.

4-18. References

City of Alamogordo will respond to reference requests through the Human Resources Department. The City will provide general information concerning the employee such as date of hire, date of separation, rehire eligibility status, and positions held.

Requests for further information must be in writing and a release from the individual the request is for must be obtained. These responses will be returned in writing based on information verifiable in the employee or former employee's personnel file.

This policy does not prohibit an employee from giving a personal reference as long as the employee is not acting as a representative of the City and the reference is not on City letterhead.

Please refer all requests for City references to the Human Resources Department.

4-19. Separation from Employment

Voluntary Termination

Should an employee decide to leave the City, we ask that he or she provide their supervisor with at least two (2) weeks, or four (4) weeks when retiring through PERA, advance written notice of departure. Thoughtfulness will be appreciated.

Failure to comply with this policy may be cause for denying re-employment with the City.

Where an employee resigns to avoid dismissal or other corrective action, the resignation may be accepted at the discretion of the Department Director with City Manager approval, and the employee will not be subject to rehire.

Retirement

Service retirement is voluntary termination after having satisfied the requirements of P.E.R.A. Retiring employees are requested to give the City at least four (4) weeks written notice prior to retirement date.

Involuntary Termination

This action is originated by the City and may be initiated for a variety of reasons to include, but not limited to:

- A. Termination during the probationary period.
- B. Termination for cause.
- C. Layoff.

Disability Retirement

This is an involuntary termination that is necessitated by an injury or illness, which renders the employee incapable of performing his/her job duties. The retirement will be in accordance with P.E.R.A.

Layoff

Layoff is an involuntary termination of employment for lack of work, lack of funds, reclassification of positions, re-organization of the City's work force, elimination of positions or other changes that have taken place.

The City Manager is responsible for administering the layoff or reduction in force.

No regular full-time, non-probationary, employee shall be laid off involuntarily if there is a vacant position for which the employee is qualified. The City Manager is responsible for offering transfers or re-employment to employees facing layoff. Employees who accept another position are considered to have voluntarily transferred.

The City will provide at least thirty (30) days advance notification prior to layoff, except in the case of an emergency.

Employees with the least amount of seniority within their position shall be laid off first.

Recall from Layoff

Laid off employees shall be recalled for vacancies based on those who meet the minimum requirements of the vacant positions. Where applicable, employees who are equally qualified will be recalled by seniority. When an employee does not respond to the City's recall notice within seven (7) calendar days, the City's obligation to recall the employee shall cease. The City shall have no obligation to recall an employee after he or she has been on continuous layoff for a period that exceeds one (1) year.

Abandonment

Employees who are absent from their job for one (1) shift or work day without notifying their supervisor are considered to have abandoned their job. The employee may apply for reinstatement directly to the City Manager. If the City Manager determines that the employee is to be reinstated, such time missed will be charged against the employee's accrued leave or leave without pay.

Return of City Property

All City property including, but not limited to: I.D. cards, laptop computer, keys, radios, tools, cell phones, City credit cards, uniforms, policy and procedure and/or rules and regulation manuals, etc., must be returned at separation. Employees also must return all of the City's confidential information upon separation. To the extent permitted by law, employees will be required to repay the City, (through payroll deduction, if lawful) for any lost or damaged City property.

Any item that identifies a person as a City employee must be returned upon separation. This does not include employee appreciation gift items.

Footwear and lifeguard uniforms are not required to be returned.

4-20. Exit Interviews

All employees, either separated voluntarily or involuntarily must report to the Human Resource Department for end of employment processing.

Exit Interview

All regular employees who separate from the City's service may be requested to participate in an exit interview on forms provided by the Human Resource Department. Participation in completing the exit interview form is voluntary on the part of the exiting employee.

Exit interviews are often helpful to determine fully not only why an employee has decided to resign, but to seek out opportunities for improvement in the City's overall operations and employee relations. Department Directors and the employee's supervisor(s) will receive a copy of the ex-employee's exit interview.

Section 5 - Benefits

5-1. Benefits and Leave

In addition to good working conditions and competitive pay, it is City of Alamogordo's policy to provide a combination of supplemental benefits to all eligible employees. These benefits include time-off benefits, such as paid time off and holidays, and insurance and other plan benefits.

The next few pages contain a brief outline of the benefit programs City of Alamogordo provides employees and their families. The information presented here is intended to serve only as guidelines and continuation of benefits are not guaranteed.

The descriptions of the insurance and other plan benefits merely highlight certain aspects of the applicable plans for general information only. The details of those plans are spelled out in the official plan documents, which are available for review upon request from the Human Resources Office or on line at www.mybenefitsnm.com. Additionally, the provisions of the plans, including eligibility and benefit provisions, are summarized in the summary plan descriptions ("SPDs") for the plans (which may be revised from time to time). In the determination of benefits and all other matters under each plan, the terms of the official plan documents shall govern over the language of any description of the plans, including the SPDs and this manual.

Further, City of Alamogordo (including the officers and administrators who are responsible for administering the plans) retains full discretionary authority to interpret the terms of the plans, as well as full discretionary authority with regard to administrative matters arising in connection with the plans and all issues concerning benefit terms, eligibility and entitlement.

While the City intends to maintain these employee benefits, it reserves the absolute right to modify, amend or terminate these benefits at any time and for any reason.

If employees have any questions regarding benefits, they should contact the Human Resources Office.

5-2. Deferred Compensation

The City allows an option to any regular employee to invest a portion of his or her earnings into a Deferred Compensation Plan. The employee may request a payroll deduction to be administered by the Human Resources Office for this purpose.

5-3. Education Assistance

The City, subject to the availability of funds, may provide education assistance to regular non-probationary employees. The courses or training program or type of degree must enhance or create a skill that is directly related to the employee's profession, skill or craft, and must demonstrate a benefit to the City. The determination for reimbursement is the responsibility of the Department Directors and will be handled in accordance with the City's Educational Assistance Internal Policy.

Employees are expected to attend courses on their own time unless other arrangements are pre-approved.

Education reimbursement will be based on a grade of "C" or Pass. A "D" or failing grade will result in the denial of the reimbursement.

To be reimbursed, employees must still be employed by the City when evidence of satisfactory course completion is received. EXCEPTION: Employees whose employment is terminated, because of a downsizing or reorganization will be reimbursed if they complete their course work after their employment is terminated. Employees will be required to serve a pre-determined tenure of service upon completion of the course or will be responsible for paying the City back on a pro-rated basis for the educational reimbursement received for the course.

5-4. Employee Assistance Program

City of Alamogordo provides an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for employees and their dependents. This program offers qualified counselors to help cope with personal or work related problems.

The City of Alamogordo may provide an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) subject to the availability of funds. The purpose of this program is to provide employees and their immediate family members with assistance in resolving personal problems that may have an adverse effect on job performance. The program may deal with a broad range of human problems such as emotional, behavioral, family, marital, alcohol and/or substance abuse, financial, legal, or other personal problems.

When an employee uses this program by self-referral, their use will be confidential and will remain anonymous to the City. Self-referral usage of the EAP is limited to the provisions of the contract with the EAP provider. Employees who use the EAP on their own will be required to use accrued leave or take leave without pay to attend appointments during work hours.

A Director may refer an employee to the EAP as a condition of continued employment. In these cases, the information the employee discusses with their provider will remain confidential under provider, client privileges. The City will be provided information from the provider regarding the employee's attendance and fitness to safely perform the essential functions of their job. Employees who are referred to the EAP by their supervisor will be allowed a reasonable amount of administrative leave with pay to attend appointments that occur during their normal work hours.

Contact the Human Resources Department for further information.

5-5. Insurance Programs

Health, Dental, Vision, and Disability Coverage

Regular full-time or part-time employees may participate in the City's health, dental, and vision insurance programs.

An employee requesting coverage is required to apply for coverage within the first thirty (30) days of employment, otherwise enrollment will not be available until open enrollment or a qualifying event has occurred.

Continuation of medical coverage will be in compliance with any applicable laws.

Employees meeting eligibility requirements under the Affordable Health Care Act will be responsible for their share of premium costs which meets guidelines under the Act.

Regular part time employees that work a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week are eligible to enroll in the City's group insurance plans. Regular part time employees will be responsible for 100% of the premium costs.

Upon becoming eligible to participate in these plans, you will receive information on obtaining Summary Plan Descriptions (SPDs) describing the benefits in greater detail. Please refer to the SPDs for detailed plan information.

Basic Life Insurance Coverage

All regular full time and regular part time employees that work a minimum of twenty (20) hours per week are eligible to receive, at no cost to the employee, a Basic Life Insurance policy.

The gym at the Senior Center may also be used at no cost to the employee. Family members and guests will be required to pay the normal charges. Employees will be given a twenty percent (20%) discount on any recreational activity or other programs offered or sponsored by the City's Community Services Department. The discount applies only to the participation of the employee, the employee's spouse or the employee's minor dependent(s). Participation at the discounted rate will only be available in the event the program has available space. The Golf Course restaurant offers a fifteen percent (15%) discount off an entree for City employees, limited to Monday-Friday during lunch. Family members and guests will be required to pay the normal charges. Rental charges for golf carts and other charges or fees will be at the normal rate. Employees will be charged the non-profit rate for rental of the Civic Center Facility. Employees will also receive free entry to the Alameda Park Zoo.

City Retirees will continue to be eligible for these services after they retire with the exception of the one day golf at the junior golf green fee rate and the entree discount at the Golf Course restaurant. City Retirees will be provided with an ID card from the Human Resources Department to receive these discounts. For the purpose of this policy a City Retiree is defined as an employee retiring in good standing under City employment and under the New Mexico PERA Retirement System.

These discounts are subject to change without prior notice. Contact Human Resources for the most current list of discounts available.

5-7. Retirement Plan

Retirement

Any employee who qualifies as mandatory under PERA guidelines, except the City Manager who has the option of joining the ICMA 401 Plan in lieu of PERA, participates in the Public Employees Retirement Association of New Mexico (PERA).

Enrollment and benefit forms are provided by the Human Resource's Office. It is the employee's individual responsibility to keep information related to their retirement account as to name, address, and beneficiary up to date.

Retiree Health Care

As part of the City's participation in PERA, eligible employees participate in the New Mexico Retiree Health Care Authority. This participation provides the benefit of health insurance to PERA retirees.

Detailed information on specific retirement benefits is available at www.nmpera.org for PERA and at www.nmrhca.org for Retiree Health Care Authority.

5-8. Training

Where the City is the one requiring additional certification or licensing beyond any required for appointment to the position held or sought by any regular full time employee, the City will be responsible for scheduling and paying all costs associated with the acquisition of the required training or licensing.

Where training is approved, employees must comply with the Finance Department's guidelines for payment and reimbursements of training. Department Directors shall not approve City paid time or training funds for employees seeking training outside their assigned classification and where the City does not request it.

The City may, subject to the availability of funds and the Department Directors approval, pay for necessary training for employees who are required to maintain a license or certificate as outlined in the employees job description.

5-9. Workers' Compensation

On-the-job injuries are covered by our Workers' Compensation Insurance Policy. If employees are injured on the job, no matter how minor, they should report the incident immediately to their Supervisor. Failure to follow City procedures may affect the ability of the employee to receive Workers Compensation benefits.

Workers Compensation benefits will be administered in accordance with State of New Mexico Worker's Compensation Law.

5-10. Administrative Leave

Administrative Leave

It is recognized that certain events arise that make administrative leave necessary. The Department Director or designee may place an employee on administrative leave with pay based on certain events. These events may include:

- A. The removal of an employee for the safety or welfare of other employees, and/or the public,
- B. The removal of an employee for the purpose of protecting the Cities facilities or properties,
- C. The removal of an employee to conduct an investigation,
- D. The removal of an employee whose conduct or welfare is at issue,
- E. When an employee is referred to the Employee Assistance Program by the supervisor as outlined in the Employee Assistance section. Employees will be granted a reasonable amount of administrative leave for appointments scheduled during normal work hours.

Employee's in pre-termination status are not eligible for administrative leave with pay. These employee's will be provided administrative leave without pay pending the outcome of their pre-disciplinary process.

The basis for such administrative leave shall be documented and submitted on the approved form to the Human Resources Director at the time of or within two (2) business days of the administrative leave commencing.

Administrative leave under this section shall not constitute corrective action. During the administrative leave, the employee shall not attend his or her regular work site or any other city facilities, except as designated by the Department Director. The employee shall remain available during normal work hours to meet with the Director or designee, as requested.

The employee may be placed on administrative leave with pay by the Director with concurrence from the Human Resources Director for up to five (5) consecutive working days for non-shift workers and seven (7) consecutive calendar days for shift workers. Leave beyond these limitations will only be authorized by the City Manager.

Unauthorized Absence

Any leave not authorized according to the appropriate rules set forth in this manual shall be deemed to be an unauthorized absence without pay. All unauthorized leave shall be initially recorded as unpaid AWOL - absence without leave. Upon receiving information of the reasons behind the unauthorized absence, the Department Director may change the leave to Paid Time Off without losing the right to give the employee corrective action up to and including termination. After one (1) shift or work day of unauthorized absence, employees are subject to termination under the Abandonment section of this manual.

5-11. Bereavement Leave

We know the death of a family member is a time when employees wish to be with their families.

The City shall allow up to three (3) days of paid Bereavement Leave for regular full time employees in cases of death in the immediate family.

The City shall allow up to three (3) days of paid Bereavement Leave for regular part time employees, pro-rated based on the employee's annual budgeted hours, in cases of death in the immediate family.

Employees who must travel 500 miles or more one-way will be allowed two (2) additional days of Bereavement Leave for a maximum total of five (5) days. Bereavement leave benefits for regular part time employees will be pro-rated based on the annual budgeted hours for these two (2) additional days.

For the purposes of this provision, immediate family is defined as: spouse, domestic partner, child, grandchild, brother, sister, parent, grandparent, step, half, and in-law relatives of the same.

Employees must inform their Supervisor prior to commencing bereavement leave.

In administering this policy, the City may require verification of death.

5-12. Jury Duty

City of Alamogordo supports the obligation of all U.S. citizens to serve on a jury when summoned to do so. All employees will be allowed time off to perform such civic service as required by law. Employees are expected to provide a copy of their jury duty and verification of their completed service, available from the court.

Employees are also expected to keep management informed of the expected length of jury duty service and to report to work for the remaining portion of the day if excused by the court.

Employees on jury duty leave will be paid for their jury duty service in accordance with state law; however, exempt employees will be paid their full salary for any week in which time is missed due to jury duty if work is performed for the City during such week.

Some courts pay jurors a fee in exchange for their jury duty. Employees shall remit to the City all compensation received for such service performed during normal working hours. All remitted jury service fees will be turned in to the Finance Department, excluding mileage fees.

5-13. Lactation Breaks

The City will provide a reasonable time to accommodate an employee desiring to express breast milk for the employee's infant child, in accordance with and to the extent required by applicable law.

The City will make reasonable efforts to provide employees with the use of a room or location other than a toilet stall for the employee to express milk in private. This location may be the employee's private office, if applicable. The City may not be able to provide additional break time if doing so would seriously disrupt the City's operations, subject to applicable law. Please consult the Human Resources Department if you have questions regarding this policy.

Employees should advise management if they need break time and an area for this purpose. Employees will not be discriminated against or retaliated against for exercising their rights under this policy.

5-14. Meal Periods/Breaks

Meal periods are usually one (1) hour, unless otherwise specified due to work demands and as pre-authorized by the Department Director. Meal periods are not counted as time worked, unless the employee is not relieved from duty during the meal period. Where meal periods are not taken by the employee and the supervisor has not requested or assigned a verbal or written duty, the employee shall be compensated for time worked, but may be subject to corrective action by their supervisor. Rest breaks may be provided with one (1) fifteen (15) minute rest period the first half of the workday and one (1) fifteen (15) minute rest period the second half of the workday. Rest breaks may not be accumulated, or used in correlation with lunch, at the beginning of work or prior to leaving from work. Breaks will be taken in designated non-work areas, but may not be away from the facility unless the employee has obtained prior supervisor approval or direction. Supervisors shall be responsible for scheduling and may authorize or limit rest breaks if continuous work is required.

5-15. Paid Time Off

The City acknowledges how hard employees work and recognizes the importance of providing time for rest and relaxation. Employees are encouraged to get this rest by taking paid time off.

Leave Defined

Leave is any authorized absence, with or without pay, during regularly scheduled work hours, which is approved by the proper authority. Leave is an employee benefit and all leave shall be earned and granted to employees as set forth in the following rules.

General Leave Approval

Leave will be granted on the basis of the work requirement as a priority, but whenever possible on the personal wishes of the employee. Requests for leave will be approved, denied, and governed through the chain of command.

Paid Time Off (PTO)

Paid Time Off (PTO) is available to cover employees needs for time away from work for vacation, sickness, or to handle personal affairs.

PTO Accrual

Regular full-time employees earn PTO hours based on the multiplier used times the regular hours paid each pay period, excluding overtime and other hours that are in addition to the budgeted base position hours of 2080. The longer an employee remains with the City of Alamogordo, the larger the multiplier will be based on the following table:

Full Years of Service	Maximum PTO Hours Earned Per Year	Maximum PTO Days Earned Per Year	Multiplier
0-5 Years	172	21.50	0.082692308
6 Years	180	22.50	0.086538462
7 Years	188	23.50	0.090384615
8 Years	196	24.50	0.094230769
9 Years	204	25.50	0.098076923
10-15 Years	212	26.50	0.101923077
16 Years	220	27.50	0.105769231
17 Years	228	28.50	0.109615385
18 Years	236	29.50	0.113461538
19 Years	244	30.50	0.117307692
20 Years & Up	252	31.50	0.121153846

The multiplier will be increased to the next incremental rate effective the first full pay-period following the employee's eligible anniversary date.

PTO hours are calculated and updated each biweekly pay period through the payroll system. Employees whose positions are budgeted for 2080 hours per fiscal year may only earn PTO hours up to the maximum per year listed in the calculation table above. Employees may not borrow against future PTO accruals or carry a negative PTO balance.

PTO Requests

It is important that employees plan PTO use carefully so that appropriate replacements can be scheduled. Employees are responsible for requesting PTO in writing and submitting it to their supervisor for approval at least one (1) week in advance for all time off, except in those cases where advance notice is not possible i.e. hospitalization, family emergency, etc, or when otherwise agreed to by the supervisor. In the instance of an unplanned absence, the employee is responsible for making every effort to notify their supervisor at least one (1) hour before the beginning of their scheduled work period. If an employee has not notified the supervisor of their absence by mid shift, the employee may be subject to 4-19 Separation From Employment/Abandonment. Abandonment does not override the PTO request requirement.

If an employee calls in sick for three (3) or more consecutive days, the employee may be required to provide his or her supervisor with a doctor's note on the day the employee returns to work.

An absence shall be considered unauthorized whenever the employee's supervisor or designee has not been properly notified before the shift begins. Responsibility for excusing an unauthorized absence shall rest with the immediate supervisor. An unauthorized absence may be paid if PTO accruals are available and the supervisor has approved the unauthorized absence. An unauthorized absence may be recorded as leave without pay at the discretion of the supervisor.

While employees will begin earning PTO hours upon hire, they are not eligible to use PTO until they have successfully completed their initial probationary or extended probationary period. Employees serving an initial twelve (12) month probationary period shall be eligible to use their PTO hours upon successful completion of the first six (6) months of their probationary period. An exception will be granted and current hours made available if the employee provides documentation of illness signed by a licensed medical professional. Individual circumstances may also be considered and approved by the Department Director.

PTO & Injury on the Job

If an employee is injured on the job during their probationary period they will have access to their available PTO leave balance to cover lost time that they are not compensated for in any other manner for the first seven (7) calendar days. Should the leave balance not be sufficient to cover the time, leave-without-pay may be authorized.

PTO Maximum Roll Over

The maximum amount of earned PTO hours employees can roll over at any fiscal year end is 480 hours. Exceptions may be approved by the City Manager, only under extenuating circumstances which could not be planned or expected. Approved excess leave must be utilized by the employee within ninety (90) days, or by October 31 of the new fiscal year.

Up to July 1, 2003, any employee having a balance in excess of 480 hours will have their current PTO balance serve as their maximum PTO roll over balance until the employee either separates service or their balance falls below 480 hours. At such time their balance falls below 480 hours their maximum limit then becomes 480 hours.

Exhaustion of PTO

Only Department Directors or their designees, on a case-by-case basis, can grant time off without pay. PTO will not accrue during periods of leave without pay.

PTO & Separation of Employment

Employees will be paid up to 480 earned, unused hours of PTO upon their retirement date through PERA. Payment for unused PTO shall be paid at the employee's regular base rate of pay at the time of retirement. PTO in excess of 480 hours will be forfeited.

Employees will be paid up to 360 earned, unused hours of PTO upon separation of employment; not in conjunction with retirement through PERA. Payment for unused PTO shall be paid at the employee's regular base rate of pay at the time of separation. PTO in excess of 360 hours will be forfeited.

All accruals cease as of the date of separation.

PTO will not be paid out to employees who terminate during their first six (6) months of employment status.

PTO Conversion

Employees may convert a maximum of eighty (80) PTO hours per fiscal year for a cash payment at a rate of two (2) hours of pay for three (3) hours of leave. This conversion is only possible for PTO balances over 240 hours. The minimum amount of hours employees may convert per conversion is eight (8) hours. The maximum number of times an employee may convert leave to pay during the fiscal year is four (4). All requests to convert leave to pay must be submitted to the Human Resources Department at least seven (7) calendar days before the pay date the employee wishes to receive the payment.

Voluntary PTO Transfer

There are times when employees may face conditions which require an extended absence from duty and subsequently result in the exhaustion of their PTO. In such cases, after consultation with the Department Director, the City Manager may permit a regular full-time employee to receive PTO donations from other qualified employees under this subsection, under the following conditions:

The employee or an immediate family member suffers from an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which is of an extraordinary or severe nature which has caused, or is likely to cause, the employee to go on leave without pay status or terminate City employment and:

- The employee's absence and the use of shared PTO are warranted;
- The employee has depleted or will shortly deplete his or her PTO reserves; and
- The employee has abided by all personnel rules regarding PTO use.

PTO donations under this provision may not exceed 480 hours per event, unless otherwise determined by the City Manager or designee.

Such leave shall be donated in one (1) hour increments, with a minimum donation of eight (8) hours per donor.

An employee who has accrued a PTO balance of more than 240 hours may request that the City Manager transfer a specified amount of PTO to another employee authorized to receive PTO under this section. In no event may the employee request a transfer of an amount of PTO that would result in his or her own PTO balance going below 240 hours. However, an employee separating from City service may donate PTO below the minimum balance of 240 hours, provided the recipient is currently on FMLA leave and/or has been approved by the City Manager to receive PTO donations.

The amount of PTO time transferred under this section which remains unused shall be returned to the employee or employees who transferred the leave when the City Manager finds that the leave is no longer needed or will not be needed at a future time in connection with the illness or injury for which the leave was transferred. The return of unused PTO will be pro-rated based on the number of hours the donator contributed to the total hours donated under the most recent reconciled balance.

Under no circumstances, including termination, can donated PTO hours be converted to cash.

5-16. Paid Holidays

The City Manager shall determine which holidays employees of the City will observe, and the date of observation.

Regular full-time and part-time employees will be paid for the following holidays:

New Year's Day

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

President's Day

Memorial Day

Independence Day

Labor Day
Veterans' Day
Thanksgiving Day
Day after Thanksgiving
Christmas Day

Holiday pay for regular part time employees will be calculated based on a pro-rated eight (8) hour holiday and the annual budgeted hours for the position held.

If a holiday falls within an eligible employee's approved leave period the eligible employee will be paid for the holiday. Leave benefits will not be charged.

Employees serving a suspension without pay shall remain eligible for observed paid holidays occurring during the suspension period; however, the observed paid holiday shall not also satisfy an imposed day of suspension without pay. Employees are not eligible for paid observed holidays while on administrative leave without pay in the pre-disciplinary process for a proposed termination of employment except in the circumstance the employee's termination is not upheld, in which case the paid holiday would be included in the back-pay for this period.

In the event a holiday falls on Sunday the following Monday shall be deemed to be the holiday. In the event the legal holiday falls on Saturday, the proceeding Friday shall be deemed to be the holiday. In these cases, time worked on the actual holiday on Saturday or Sunday will be the time that is eligible for holiday pay in accordance with the section on Holiday Pay under Compensation.

5-17. Voting Leave

An employee who is registered to vote shall be granted up to two (2) hours with pay, between the opening and closing times of the polls, to vote on all election days. Time off will not be granted to employees whose normal work day begins more than two (2) hours after the opening time of the polls or ends more than three (3) hours prior to the closing time of the polls. Time off for voting will not be utilized for any other purpose.

The employees supervisor should be notified prior to utilizing the Voting Leave. The time of day will be regulated by the supervisor to minimize disruption of service. The employee may be required to produce proof of voter registration.

5-18. Other Benefits

The City may offer other benefits to employees to be paid in whole or part by the employee through a payroll deduction or other means.

City contributions to any benefit are contingent upon available funding and required approvals.

Section 6 - Leaves of Absence

6-1. Personal Leave

If regular full time employees are ineligible for any other City leave of absence, City of Alamogordo, under certain circumstances, may grant a personal leave of absence without pay. A written request for a personal leave should be presented to the Department Director at least two (2) weeks before the anticipated start of the leave. The Department Director will prepare a recommendation to the City Manager, through the Human Resources Department. The recommendation will include the reason for the request, the day it will start and expected day of return, and how it will impact department operations.

If personal leave is requested for medical reasons and employees are not eligible for leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) or any state leave law, medical certification also must be submitted. The request will be considered on the basis of staffing requirements and the reasons for the requested leave, as well as performance and attendance records. Normally, personal leave will be granted for a period of up to twelve (12) weeks. However personal leave may be extended if, prior to the end of leave, employees submit a written request for an extension to management and the request is granted.

Employee's that are on approved personal leave:

1. Are not eligible to withdraw their PERA retirement benefits.
2. Will not earn leave benefits, during any duration of leave without pay (LWOP).
3. Are not eligible for holidays that fall during the period of LWOP.
4. Shall not use LWOP to work for another employer or pursue self-employment.
5. Are eligible to continue participation in the City's health insurance program provided the employee makes arrangements to pay the City the full insurance premium if LWOP exceeds two full pay periods.
6. Will be responsible for the employee and employer share of the premiums.
7. Shall be terminated if they fail to return on the day specified, unless an extension has been authorized in advance.
8. Employees must use all accumulated leave and comp-time prior to utilizing LWOP under this provision.
9. Are not eligible to participate in the donated leave provision.

Upon completion of the personal leave of absence, the City will attempt to return employees to their original job or a similar position, subject to prevailing business considerations. Reinstatement, unless FMLA qualified, is not guaranteed.

Failure to advise management of availability to return to work, failure to return to work when notified or a continued absence from work beyond the time approved by the City will be considered a voluntary resignation of employment.

6-2. Military Leave

If employees are required to attend yearly Reserves or National Guard duty, of New Mexico, they will be eligible to receive military leave with pay, not to exceed fifteen (15) days in each calendar year, then unpaid military leave of absence provided the absence does not exceed applicable statutory limitations.

All employees called to active duty in emergencies declared by the Governor of the United States or the President of the United States for short periods of time shall be granted military leave with pay not to exceed fifteen (15) days.

A copy of orders must be attached to all requests for military leave, annual or emergency.

This leave does not apply to assignments volunteered for by the employee.

To be eligible for military leave, employees must provide management with advance notice of service obligations unless they are prevented from providing such notice by military necessity or it is otherwise impossible or unreasonable to provide such notice.

Employees should give management as much advance notice of their need for military leave as possible to ensure proper coverage while employees are away.

Provided any absence does not exceed applicable statutory limitations, employees will retain reemployment rights and accrue seniority and benefits in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

Authority for all military leave shall be within the provisions of Federal, State, and Local Laws.

6-3. Family and Medical Leave

The Family and Medical Leave Policy

Employees may be entitled to a leave of absence under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). This policy provides employees information concerning FMLA entitlements and obligations employees may have during such leaves. If employees have any questions concerning FMLA leave, they should contact the Human Resources Office.

I. Eligibility

FMLA leave is available to "eligible employees." To be an "eligible employee," an employee must: 1) have been employed by the City for at least 12 months (which need not be consecutive); 2) have been employed by the City for at least 1,250 hours of service during the 12-month period immediately preceding the commencement of the leave; and 3) be employed at a worksite where 50 or more employees are located within 75 miles of the worksite.

II. Entitlements

As described below, the FMLA provides eligible employees with a right to leave, health insurance benefits and, with some limited exceptions, job restoration.

A. Basic FMLA Leave Entitlement

The FMLA provides eligible employees up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave for certain family and medical reasons during a 12-month period. The 12-month period is determined based on a 12-month period measured forward from the start date of the employee's first FMLA leave. Leave may be taken for any one, or for a combination, of the following reasons:

- To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
- To care for the employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent (but not in-law) who has a serious health condition;
- For the employee's own serious health condition (including any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or childbirth) that makes the employee unable to perform one or more of the essential functions of the employee's job; and/or
- Because of any qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that an employee's spouse, son, daughter or parent is a military member on covered active duty or called to covered active duty status (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty) in the Reserves component of the Armed Forces for deployment to a foreign country in support of contingency operation or Regular Armed Forces for deployment to a foreign country.

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities. Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, caring for the parents of the military member on covered active duty and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

B. Additional Military Family Leave Entitlement (Injured Service Member Leave)

In addition to the basic FMLA leave entitlement discussed above, an eligible employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin of a covered service member is entitled to take up to 26 weeks of leave during a single 12-month period to care for the service member with a serious injury or illness. Leave to care for a service member shall only be available during a single-12 month period and, when combined with other FMLA-qualifying leave, may not exceed 26 weeks during the single 12-month period. The single 12-month period begins on the first day an eligible employee takes leave to care for the injured service member.

A "covered service member" is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status or is on the temporary retired list, for a serious injury or illness. These individuals are referred to in this policy as "current members of the Armed Forces." Covered service member also includes a veteran who is discharged or released from military services under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five years preceding the date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for a serious injury or illness. These individuals are referred to in this policy as "covered veterans."

The FMLA definitions of a "serious injury or illness" for current Armed Forces members and covered veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of "serious health condition" applicable to FMLA leave to care for a covered family member.

C. Intermittent Leave and Reduced Leave Schedules

FMLA leave usually will be taken for a period of consecutive days, weeks or months. However, employees also are entitled to take FMLA leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary due to a serious health condition of the employee or covered family member or the serious injury or illness of a covered service member. Qualifying exigency leave also may be taken on an intermittent basis.

D. No Work While on Leave

The taking of another job while on family/medical leave or any other authorized leave of absence is grounds for immediate discharge, to the extent permitted by law.

E. Protection of Group Health Insurance Benefits

During FMLA leave, eligible employees are entitled to receive group health plan coverage under the same terms and conditions as if they had continued to work.

F. Restoration of Employment and Benefits

At the end of FMLA leave, subject to some exceptions including situations where job restoration of "key employees" will cause the City substantial and grievous economic injury, employees generally have a right to return to the same or equivalent position with equivalent pay, benefits and other employment terms. The City will notify employees if they qualify as "key employees," if it intends to deny reinstatement, and of their rights in such instances. Use of FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an eligible employee's FMLA leave.

G. Notice of Eligibility for, and Designation of, FMLA Leave

Employees requesting FMLA leave are entitled to receive written notice from the City telling them whether they are eligible for FMLA leave and, if not eligible, the reasons why they are not eligible. When eligible for FMLA leave, employees are entitled to receive written notice of: 1) their rights and responsibilities in connection with such leave; 2) City's designation of leave as FMLA-qualifying or non-qualifying, and if not FMLA-qualifying, the reasons why; and 3) the amount of leave, if known, that will be counted against the employee's leave entitlement.

The City may retroactively designate leave as FMLA leave with appropriate written notice to employees provided the City's failure to designate leave as FMLA-qualifying at an earlier date did not cause harm or injury to the employee. In all cases where leave qualifies for FMLA protection, the City and employee can mutually agree that leave be retroactively designated as FMLA leave.

III. Employee FMLA Leave Obligations

A. Provide Notice of the Need for Leave

Employees who take FMLA leave must timely notify the City of their need for FMLA leave. The following describes the content and timing of such employee notices.

1. Content of Employee Notice

To trigger FMLA leave protections, employees must inform the Human Resources Office of the need for FMLA-qualifying leave and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave, if known. Employees may do this by either requesting FMLA leave specifically, or explaining the reasons for leave so as to allow the City to determine that the leave is FMLA-qualifying. For example, employees might explain that:

- a medical condition renders them unable to perform the functions of their job;
- they are pregnant or have been hospitalized overnight;
- they or a covered family member are under the continuing care of a health care provider;
- the leave is due to a qualifying exigency caused by a military member being on covered active duty or called to covered active duty status to a foreign country; or
- if the leave is for a family member, that the condition renders the family member unable to perform daily activities or that the family member is a covered service member with a serious injury or illness.

Calling in "sick," without providing the reasons for the needed leave, will not be considered sufficient notice for FMLA leave under this policy. Employees must respond to the City's questions to determine if absences are potentially FMLA-qualifying.

If employees fail to explain the reasons for FMLA leave, the leave may be denied. When employees seek leave due to FMLA-qualifying reasons for which the City has previously provided FMLA-protected leave, they must specifically reference the qualifying reason for the leave or the need for FMLA leave.

2. Timing of Employee Notice

Employees must provide 30 days' advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days' notice is not possible, or the approximate timing of the need for leave is not foreseeable, employees must provide the City notice of the need for leave as soon as practicable under the facts and circumstances of the particular case. Employees who fail to give 30 days' notice for foreseeable leave without a reasonable excuse for the delay, or otherwise fail to satisfy FMLA notice obligations, may have FMLA leave delayed or denied.

B. Cooperate in the Scheduling of Planned Medical Treatment (Including Accepting Transfers to Alternative Positions) and Intermittent Leave or Reduced Leave Schedules

When planning medical treatment, employees must consult with the City and make a reasonable effort to schedule treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the City's operations, subject to the approval of an employee's health care provider. Employees must consult with the City prior to the scheduling of treatment to work out a treatment schedule that best suits the needs of both the City and the employees, subject to the approval of an employee's health care provider. If employees providing notice of the need to take FMLA leave on an intermittent basis for planned medical treatment neglect to fulfill this obligation, the City may require employees to attempt to make such arrangements, subject to the approval of the employee's health care provider.

When employees take intermittent or reduced work schedule leave for foreseeable planned medical treatment for the employee or a family member, including during a period of recovery from a serious health condition or to care for a covered service member, the City may temporarily transfer employees, during the period that the intermittent or reduced leave schedules are required, to alternative positions with equivalent pay and benefits for which the employees are qualified and which better accommodate recurring periods of leave.

When employees seek intermittent leave or a reduced leave schedule for reasons unrelated to the planning of medical treatment, upon request, employees must advise the City of the reason why such leave is medically necessary. In such instances, the City and employee shall attempt to work out a leave schedule that meets the employee's needs without unduly disrupting the City's operations, subject to the approval of the employee's health care provider.

C. Submit Medical Certifications Supporting Need for FMLA Leave (Unrelated to Requests for Military Family Leave)

Depending on the nature of FMLA leave sought, employees may be required to submit medical certifications supporting their need for FMLA-qualifying leave. As described below, there generally are three types of FMLA medical certifications: an initial certification, a recertification and a return to work/fitness for duty certification.

It is the employee's responsibility to provide the City with timely, complete and sufficient medical certifications. Whenever the City requests employees to provide FMLA medical certifications, employees must provide the requested certifications within 15 calendar days after the City's request, unless it is not practicable to do so despite an employee's diligent, good faith efforts. The City will inform employees if submitted medical certifications are incomplete or insufficient and provide employees at least seven calendar days to cure deficiencies. The City will deny FMLA leave to employees who fail to timely cure deficiencies or otherwise fail to timely submit requested medical certifications.

With the employee's permission, the City may contact the employee's health care provider to authenticate or clarify completed and sufficient medical certifications. If employees choose not to provide the City with authorization allowing it to clarify or authenticate certifications with health care providers, the City may deny FMLA leave if certifications are unclear.

Whenever the City deems it appropriate to do so, it may waive its right to receive timely, complete and/or sufficient FMLA medical certifications.

1. Initial Medical Certifications

Employees requesting leave because of their own, or a covered relation's, serious health condition, or to care for a covered service member, must supply medical certification supporting the need for such leave from their health care provider or, if applicable, the health care provider of their covered family or service member. If employees provide at least 30 days' notice of medical leave, they should submit the medical certification before leave begins. A new initial medical certification will be required on an annual basis for serious medical conditions lasting beyond a single leave year.

If the City has reason to doubt initial medical certifications, it may require employees to obtain a second opinion at the City's expense. If the opinions of the initial and second health care providers differ, the City may, at its expense, require employees to obtain a third, final and binding certification from a health care provider designated or approved jointly by the City and the employee.

2. Medical Re-certifications

Depending on the circumstances and duration of FMLA leave, the City may require employees to provide recertification of medical conditions giving rise to the need for leave. The City will notify employees if recertification is required and will give employees at least 15 calendar days to provide medical recertification.

3. Return to Work/Fitness for Duty Medical Certifications

Unless notified that providing such certifications is not necessary, employees returning to work from FMLA leaves that were taken because of their own serious health conditions that made them unable to perform their jobs must provide the City with medical certification confirming they are able to return to work and the employees' ability to perform the essential functions of the employees' position, with or without reasonable accommodation. The City may delay and/or deny job restoration until employees provide return to work/fitness for duty certifications.

D. Submit Certifications Supporting Need for Military Family Leave

Upon request, the first time employees seek leave due to qualifying exigencies arising out of the covered active duty or call to covered active duty status of a military member, the City may require employees to provide: 1) a copy of the military member's active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military indicating the military member is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status and the dates of the military member's covered active duty service; and 2) a certification from the employee setting forth information concerning the nature of the qualifying exigency for which leave is requested. Employees shall provide a copy of new active duty orders or other documentation issued by the military for leaves arising out of qualifying exigencies arising out of a different covered active duty or call to covered active duty status of the same or a different military member.

When leave is taken to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness, the City may require employees to obtain certifications completed by an authorized health care provider of the covered service member. In addition, and in accordance with the FMLA regulations, the City may request that the certification submitted by employees set forth additional information provided by the employee and/or the covered service member confirming entitlement to such leave.

E. Substitute Paid Leave for Unpaid FMLA Leave

Employees are required to use any accrued Paid Time Off while taking unpaid FMLA leave.

The substitution of paid time for unpaid FMLA leave time does not extend the length of FMLA leave and the paid time will run concurrently with an employee's FMLA entitlement.

Leaves of absence taken in connection with a disability leave plan or workers' compensation injury/illness shall run concurrently with any FMLA leave entitlement. Upon written request, the City will allow employee's to use accrued Paid Time Off to supplement any paid disability benefits.

F. Pay Employee's Share of Health Insurance Premiums

During FMLA leave, employees are entitled to continued group health plan coverage under the same conditions as if they had continued to work. Unless the City notifies employees of other arrangements, whenever employees are receiving pay from the City during FMLA leave, the City will deduct the employee portion of the group health plan premium from the employee's paycheck in the same manner as if the employee was actively working.

If FMLA leave is unpaid, employees must pay their portion of the group health premium through a "pay-as-you-go" method.

The City's obligation to maintain health care coverage ceases if the employee's premium payment is more than 30 days late. If the employee's payment is more than 15 days late, the City will send a letter notifying the employee that coverage will be dropped on a specified date unless the co-payment is received before that date. If employees do not return to work within 30 calendar days at the end of the leave period (unless employees cannot return to work because of a serious health condition or other circumstances beyond their control), they will be required to reimburse the City for the cost of the premiums the City paid for maintaining coverage during their unpaid FMLA leave.

IV. Exemption for Highly Compensated Employees

The City may choose not to return highly compensated employees (highest paid 10% of employees at a worksite or within 75 miles of that worksite) to their former or equivalent positions following a leave if restoration of employment will cause substantial economic injury to the City. (This fact-specific determination will be made by the City on a case-by-case basis.) The City will notify employees if they qualify as a "highly compensated", if the City intends to deny reinstatement, and of the employee's rights in such instances.

V. Questions and/or Complaints about FMLA Leave

If you have questions regarding this FMLA policy, please contact the Human Resources Office. The City is committed to complying with the FMLA and, whenever necessary, shall interpret and apply this policy in a manner consistent with the FMLA.

The FMLA makes it unlawful for employers to: 1) interfere with, restrain or deny the exercise of any right provided under FMLA; or 2) discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA. If employees believe their FMLA rights have been violated, they should contact the Human Resources Office immediately. The City will investigate any FMLA complaints and take prompt and appropriate remedial action to address and/or remedy any FMLA violation. Employees also may file FMLA complaints with the United States Department of Labor or may bring private lawsuits alleging FMLA violations.

VI. Coordination of FMLA Leave with Other Leave Policies

The FMLA does not affect any federal, state or local law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights. For additional information concerning leave entitlements and obligations that might arise when FMLA leave is either not available or exhausted, please consult the City's other leave policies in this manual or contact the Human Resources Office.

The City of Alamogordo administers family and medical leaves of absence in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993.

6-4. Volunteer Emergency Responder Job Protection Act

An employee's rights under the New Mexico Statute Chapter 12, Article 10C-1-4, Volunteer Emergency Responder Job Protection Act will be administered in accordance with the Act.

6-5. The Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act

An employee's rights under The Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) will be administered in accordance with the Act.

6-6. Other Leave

City of Alamogordo recognizes that an employee may have a need to be excused from work in order to attend to personal situations beyond their control. The purpose of this policy is to outline the parameters for Domestic Victims Leave. Under this policy, the following circumstances may be approved for critical personal leaves for employees who are:

- victims of domestic violence
- victims of criminal acts
- victims of natural disasters
- family members of military service members - refer to FMLA Policy under Section 6 of this manual.

All regular full and part time employees, regardless of length of service, are eligible for leave which meet any of the above-referenced criteria. Such approved periods of leaves will be unpaid except where an employee elects to use available paid time off.

The leave provided for in this policy is supplemental to any leave that may be required under applicable laws such as the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). You may have similar rights under state law. Employees should look to their leave rights under such laws before resorting to the leave provided for in this policy.

Any request for leave for one of the reasons itemized above must be made in writing, must be for a specified period, and approved by the Department Director.

All leave requests may require documentation supporting the necessity for the leave. Such documentation must be provided within a reasonable time period following the request and may include court, military, insurance, physician, or other documents that verify the need for leave.

The City reserves the right to restrict leave or the duration of a leave if the leave will cause a major impact on City operations.

Domestic Victims leave may be taken in a continuous block of time or sporadically and is limited to fourteen (14) work days in a calendar year; however, employees may submit subsequent documented leave requests for continuation of leave when necessary.

Eligible employees who take leave under this section are entitled to receive group health plan coverage under the same terms and conditions as if they had continued to work and are responsible for ensuring that a benefit payment schedule is arranged with payroll if necessary.

This policy will be administered pursuant to New Mexico Statute 50-4A-1-8, Promoting Financial Independence for Victims of Domestic Abuse Act.

For eligibility requirements contact Human Resources.

If the collection provider does not have a same gender individual available, the City will provide an observer whom shall be a member of City Management. The following are grounds for an observed test under this section:

1. The employee has presented a urine specimen that falls outside of the normal temperature range 32⁰ - 38⁰ C or 90⁰ - 100⁰ F; and
2. The employee declines to provide an oral body temperature; or

6. The confirmation test shall be conducted within not less than 15 minutes and no more than 30 minutes of a positive screening test.

- promoted into a non-safety sensitive position is exempt from the pre-employment drug test provision.

4. Should an applicant have a pre-employment drug test with a positive result, the conditional offer of employment shall be rescinded.

E. RANDOM TESTING

All employees designated as "Safety Sensitive" per the "Applicability", Section are subject to random drug and alcohol testing.

Procedure:

1. Tests are unannounced and the City of Alamogordo will notify the employee of any selection for a random test just prior to testing.
2. The employee shall immediately present him or herself for testing at the designated collection location noted on the random selection notice form.
3. Any employee not reporting for testing immediately shall be deemed to have refused to test, and shall be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

Employees on shift work will present themselves for testing upon notification from their supervisor.

F. RANDOM SELECTION

The following represents how and how often random selections occur:

1. The rate of selection is 50% per anum for drugs and 25% per anum for alcohol. These rates may be adjusted by the Department of Transportation guidelines;

2. The selections are done by a scientifically valid process through the facility contracted to perform drug and alcohol tests.

G. POST-ACCIDENT TESTING

All employees are subject to post-accident drug and/or alcohol testing. All employees are required to report accidents immediately. Reporting procedures for accidents are defined in the City's Safety Manual, Section VII.

Employees involved in on-the-job accidents are subject to testing.

1. SAFETY SENSITIVE AND NON-SAFETY SENSITIVE POSITIONS:

- Testing will be conducted immediately following the accident if information is provided by credible sources, or it is reasonable and independently corroborated that objective facts indicate the driver is under the influence of controlled substance or alcohol.
- Police involved in an accident who use deadly force are subject to drug and alcohol testing. Deadly force means, that force which a reasonable person would consider likely to cause death or serious bodily harm.

2. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION (D.O.T) REGULATED EMPLOYEES:

Testing for both alcohol and drugs shall be conducted for each surviving driver:

- If the accident involved the loss of human life;
- Who receives a citation under State or local law for a moving traffic violation arising from the accident;
- Bodily injury to any person who, as a result of the injury, immediately receives medical treatment away from the scene of the accident;
- One or more motor vehicles incurring disabling damage as a result of the accident, requiring the motor vehicle to be transported away from the scene by a tow truck or other motor vehicle.

All D.O.T employees requiring post-accident testing will report for testing within two (2) hours of the accident and shall remain readily available for such testing or may be deemed by the employer to have refused to submit to testing.

Procedure:

1. If test(s) are not administered within two hours following the accident, the employer shall prepare and maintain on file a record stating the reasons the test was not promptly administered.
2. If a test required by this section is not administered within eight hours following the accident, the employer shall cease attempts to administer an alcohol test and shall prepare and maintain the same record.
3. The results of breath or blood test for the use of alcohol by Federal, State, or local officials having independent authority for the test, shall be considered to meet the requirements of post-accident testing, provided the tests conform with the applicable Federal, State, or local alcohol testing requirements, and that the results are obtained by the City of Alamogordo.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the delay of necessary medical attention for the injured following an accident or to prohibit a driver from leaving the scene of an accident for the period necessary to obtain assistance in responding to the accident, or to obtain necessary emergency medical care.

H. REASONABLE SUSPICION TESTING

Reasonable suspicion testing may be based upon, among other things:

1. Observable phenomena, such as direct observation of drug and/or alcohol use or possession and/or the physical symptoms of being under the influence of drug(s) and/or alcohol, or a pattern of abnormal conduct or erratic behavior.
2. Abnormal conduct or erratic behavior may include the following, which is not intended to be all inclusive:
 - Abnormally dilated or constricted pupils
 - Glazed stare-redness of eyes
 - Flushed face
 - Change of speech (ie. faster or slower)
 - Constant Sniffing
 - Redness under nose
 - Needle marks
 - Change in personality
 - Forgetfulness
 - Constant fatigue or hyperactivity
 - Smell of alcohol
 - Slurred speech
 - Difficulty walking
 - Slowed reaction rate
 - Dulled mental processes
3. Information provided by credible sources or independently corroborated;
4. Newly discovered evidence that the driver has tampered with a previous drug and/or alcohol test.

Procedures:

1. If an employee is suspected of using illegal drugs, the appropriate supervisor will gather all information, facts, and circumstances leading to and supporting this suspicion.
2. The employee shall be driven to an approved collection site and the appropriate reasonable suspicion drug and/or alcohol test shall be administered.
3. The employee will be placed on Administrative Leave and taken home or may be picked up by a responsible friend or family member.
4. The Director and Human Resources will be notified immediately.
5. The appropriate supervisor will promptly prepare a written report detailing the circumstances which formed the basis to warrant the testing on the City's designated form.
6. This report should include the appropriate dates and times of reported drug/alcohol related incidents, names of credible sources of information, rationale leading to the test, and the action taken.
7. Completed forms will be submitted to Human Resources for proper filing.

Reasonable suspicion testing does not require certainty, however, mere "hunches" are not sufficient to meet the standard for testing.

I. REFUSAL TO TEST

1. Refusal by the employee to take any required test(s) shall be considered an automatic positive test result and will be grounds for corrective action up to and including termination.
2. Any employee who refuses to be tested when so required will be subject to removal from any safety sensitive function and will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination.

Refusal to test and incomplete tests are:

Alcohol:

1. Fails to present him or herself for testing, within the designated time frame, after he or she has received notice that testing is occurring;
 2. Employee fails to complete and sign the breath alcohol testing form;
 3. Fails to provide breath, or to provide an adequate amount of breath; or
 4. Fails to otherwise cooperate with the testing process.
- If there is an inability for the driver to provide an adequate amount of breath the driver shall be directed by the City of Alamogordo, if required to, obtain, and as soon as practical, an evaluation from a licensed physician why the employee could not deliver an adequate sample.
 - If the licensed physician is unable to conclude that a high degree of probability existed that a medical problem resulted in the inadequate sample, the test is considered as a refusal and automatically considered a positive test and will result in corrective action up to and including termination.
 - If the driver refuses to take a confirmation test he or she shall not operate a motor vehicle or perform any safety sensitive function and will be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

Controlled Substance Urine Sample:

1. Fails to provide an adequate urine sample without a genuine inability to provide a specimen after he or she has received notice of the requirement for urine testing;
2. Fails to present him or herself for testing, within the designated time frame, after he or she has received notice that testing is occurring;
3. Engages in conduct that clearly obstructs the testing process; or
4. The employee has presented a urine specimen that falls outside the normal temperature range of 32⁰ - 38⁰ C or 90⁰ - 100⁰ F; and
5. The employee declines to provide an oral body temperature.

Consequences of Refusing to Test:

Refusals to test are treated as if they were a positive test result for either alcohol or controlled substances and will subject the employee to corrective action up to and including termination.

J. TEST RESULTS

Should an employee receive a positive or non-negative drug or alcohol result:

1. Under no circumstance will the employee be allowed to drive.
2. The Director and Human Resources will be notified immediately.
3. A valid prescription may be the cause, and if documentation can be provided, the employee may return to duty, if there is no sign of impairment until the confirmation result is in.
4. If documentation of a valid prescription cannot be provided the employee will be placed on Administrative Leave pending the result of the confirmation test.
5. The employee shall be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

Opportunity to Justify a Positive Drug or Non-Negative Test Result:

When a drug test result has been returned by the laboratory to the Medical Review Officer (MRO), he or she shall perform their duties. For example, the Medical Review Officer may choose to conduct employee medical interviews, review employee medical history, or review any other relevant biomedical factors. The Medical Review Officer must review all non-negative and positive results.

Evidence to justify a positive result may include, but is not limited to:

1. A valid prescription; or
2. A verification from the individual's physician verifying a valid prescription.

Individuals are not entitled, however, to present evidence in a trial-type administrative proceeding, although the Medical Review Officer has the discretion to accept evidence in any manner that they deem most efficient or necessary. If the Medical Review Officer determines there is not justification for the positive result, such result will be considered a verified positive test result. The Medical Review Officer shall immediately contact the appropriate official upon obtaining a verified positive test result.

K. LEGAL MEDICATION USE

1. Any employee in a safety sensitive position who is taking prescribed, non-prescribed, and/or over the counter medication containing alcohol for illness or injury must report the use of these substances to his or her employer.
2. It is the responsibility of the employee to determine the effects of these medications and/or drugs on job performance and safety. Generally the effects would be considered substantial enough to warrant removal from job duties if the container states that driving should not be done after taking the medication, or drowsiness occurs after taking the medication.
3. In the event that these medications adversely affect performance or safety to the extent that the employee must be relieved from duty no disciplinary action will be taken against the employee. He or she may be required to take Paid Time Off, leave without pay, or be placed in a less sensitive position if available.
4. No prescription drugs shall be brought into the work place by any person other than the person for whom the drug is prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner and shall be used only in the manner, combination, and quantity prescribed.

L. VOLUNTARY ASSISTANCE (SELF REFERRAL)

The City encourages employees who believe or suspect that they may be abusing a substance to voluntarily refer themselves to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). The EAP staff is prepared to assist employees requesting their services. Employees may self-refer at any time except within twenty-four (24) hours after an accident, as defined in this policy, or after being notified that they must submit to a random or reasonable suspicion drug/alcohol test. Except as otherwise provided in this policy, an employee's use of the EAP services shall remain confidential.

As a part of its efforts to promote employee wellness, the City maintains an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and encourages employees to voluntarily seek assistance regarding substance abuse. However, because employees who are substance abusers do not always avail themselves of this program, the City, as a responsible employer, elects to take additional steps to deter substance abuse which may impact the workplace.

1. Any employee who self-refers shall be placed on the appropriate leave status. Employees who voluntarily seek assistance for substance abuse may receive, without charge, an evaluation with a Substance Abuse Professional (SAP) through the City of Alamogordo EAP. Recommendations from the SAP will be met, at the employees own expense. Employee will remain on leave status until the Substance Abuse Professional documents that he or she is ready and able to return to assigned job duties without endangering the safety of themselves or others; the employee has completed a return-to-duty drug and/or alcohol test with a negative result; and the City has been provided with a return-to-work agreement.
2. The return-to-work agreement shall require that the employee remain compliant with his or her treatment program and non-compliance is grounds for corrective action up to and including termination. The requirements for return-to-duty testing will be performed as outlined in 49 CFR part 40, subpart O.

An employee with a verified positive test during the follow-up testing administered pursuant to a return-to-work agreement shall be subject to corrective action up to and including termination.

Follow-up testing is separate and in addition to any other testing required by other provisions of the City's Drug and Alcohol Abuse Policy. Appropriate discipline shall be imposed for verified positive tests under those provisions without regard to an employee's participation in the self-referral program.

ALCOHOL

Although used routinely as beverage for enjoyment, alcohol can also have negative physical and mood-altering effects when abused. These physical or mental alterations in a driver may have serious personal and public safety risks.

HEALTH EFFECTS

An average of three or more servings per day of beer (12 oz.) Whiskey (1 oz.) or wine (6 oz.) over time, may result in the following health hazards:

- Dependency
- Fatal liver disease
- Kidney disease
- Pancreatitis
- Ulcers
- Decreased sexual functions
- Increased cancers of the mouth, tongue, pharynx, esophagus, rectum, breast, and malignant melanoma birth defects such as Fetal Alcohol Syndrome.

Social Issues

- 2/3 of all homicides are committed by people who drink prior to the crime.
- 2-3% of the driving population are legally drunk at any one time. This rate doubles at night and on weekends.
- 2/3 of all Americans will be involved in an alcohol-related accident during their lifetime.
- The separation and divorce rate in families with alcohol dependency problems is seven (7) times the average.
- 40% of family court cases are alcohol-related.
- Alcoholics are 15 times more likely to commit suicide.
- More than 60% of burns, 40% of falls, 69% of boating accidents, and 76% of private aircraft accidents are alcohol related.
- Over 17,000 fatalities occurred in 1993 in highway accidents, which were alcohol-related. This was 43% of all highway fatalities.

Workplace Issues

- It takes one hour for the average person (150 pounds) to process one serving of alcohol from the body.
- Impairment can be measured with as little as two drinks in the body.
- A person who is legally intoxicated is 6 times more likely to have an accident than a sober person.

Reporting Legal Drug Use

The reporting requirements which arise under Title 49 Code of Federal regulations Parts 40 and 382 are an element of this policy. To the extent such reporting requirements hinge on operations in interstate, or intrastate, commerce or application of United States Department of Transportation regulations or require reporting to Federal agencies, such reporting requirements will be implemented to the degree to which they apply.

The City of Alamogordo utilizes a Third Party Administrator (TPA) to data base employee drug/alcohol testing information, conduct random drug/alcohol selections, and receive testing results. The TPA acts as an agent for the employer. It does not replace the employer or responsibilities for meeting the Department of Transportation requirements.

1. Drug/alcohol testing records are first received by the Third Party Administrator of the City's drug and alcohol program. The results are transmitted to the Human Resources Department who shall maintain them and, except as provided below or by law, the results of any drug/alcohol test shall not be disclosed without express consent of the tested employee.
2. Records of a verified positive drug/alcohol test result shall be released to the employee's Department Director.
3. Records of an employee's drug/alcohol tests shall be released to the adjudicator in a grievance, lawsuit or other proceeding initiated by or on behalf of the tested individual arising from the results of the drug/alcohol test.

Failure to do so may result in disciplinary actions.

Alcohol's Trip Through the Body

Mouth and Esophagus: Alcohol is an irritant to the delicate linings of the throat and food pipe. It burns as it goes down.

Stomach and Intestines: Alcohol has an irritating effect on the stomach's protective lining, resulting in gastric or duodenal ulcers. This condition, if it becomes acute, can cause peritonitis, or perforation of the stomach wall. In the small intestine, alcohol blocks absorption of such substances as thiamine, folic acid, fat, vitamin B1, vitamin B12, and amino acids.

Bloodstream: 95% of the alcohol taken into the body is absorbed into the bloodstream through the lining of the stomach and duodenum. Once in the bloodstream, alcohol quickly goes to every cell and tissue in the body. Alcohol causes red blood cells to clump together in sticky wads, slowing circulation and depriving tissues of oxygen. It also causes anemia by reduction of red blood cell production. Alcohol slows the ability of white cells to engulf and destroy bacteria and degenerates the clotting ability of blood platelets.

Pancreas: Alcohol irritates the cells of the pancreas, causing them to swell, thus blocking the flow of digestive enzymes. The chemicals, unable to enter the small intestine, begin to digest the pancreas, leading to acute hemorrhagic pancreatitis. One out of five patients who develop this disease dies during the first attack. Pancreatitis can destroy the pancreas and cause a lack of insulin thus resulting in diabetes.

Liver: Alcohol inflames the cells of the liver, causing them to swell and block the tiny canal to the small intestines. This prevents bile from being filtered properly through the liver. Jaundice develops, turning the whites of the eyes and skin yellow. Each drink of alcohol increases the number of live cells destroyed, eventually causing cirrhosis of the liver. This disease is eight times more frequent among alcoholics than among non-alcoholics.

Heart: Alcohol causes inflammation of the heart muscle. It has a toxic effect on the heart and causes increased amounts of fat to collect, thus disrupting its normal metabolism.

Urinary Bladder and Kidneys: Alcohol inflames the lining of the urinary bladder making it unable to stretch properly. In the kidneys, alcohol causes increased loss of fluids through its irritating effect.

Sex Glands: Swelling of the prostate gland caused by alcohol interferes with the ability of the male to perform sexually. It also interferes with the ability to climax during intercourse.

Brain: The most dramatic and noticed effect of alcohol is on the brain. It depresses brain centers, producing progressive incoordination: confusion, distortion, stupor, anesthesia, coma, death. Alcohol kills brain cells and brain damage is permanent. Drinking over a period of time causes loss of memory, judgement and learning ability.

DRUGS

Marijuana

Health Effects

- Emphysema-like conditions.
- One joint of marijuana contains cancer-causing substances equal to ½ pack of cigarettes.
- One joint causes the heart to race and be overworked. People with heart conditions are at risk.
- Marijuana is commonly contaminated with the fungus Aspergillus, which can cause serious respiratory tract and sinus infections.

- Marijuana lowers the body's immune system response, making users more susceptible to infections. Chronic smoking causes changes in brain cells and brain waves. The brain does not work as efficiently or effectively. Long-term brain damage may occur.
- Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) and sixty (60) other chemicals in marijuana concentrate in the ovaries and testes.
- Chronic smoking of marijuana in males causes a decrease in testosterone and an increase in estrogen, the female hormone. As a result, the sperm count is reduced, leading to a temporary sterility.
- Chronic smoking of marijuana in females causes a decrease in fertility.
- A higher than normal incidence of stillborn births, early termination of pregnancy, and higher infant mortality rate during the first few days of life are common in pregnant marijuana smokers.
- THC causes birth defects including brain damage, spinal cord, forelimbs, liver, and water on the brain and spine in test animals.
- Prenatal exposure may cause underweight newborn babies.
- Fetal exposure may decrease visual functioning.
- User's mental function can display the following effects:

1. delayed decision making
2. diminished concentration
3. impaired short-term memory
4. impaired signal detection
5. impaired tracking
6. erratic cognitive function
7. distortion of time estimation

Workplace Issues

- THC is stored in body fat and slowly released.
- Marijuana smoking has long-term effects on performance.
- Increased THC potency in modern marijuana dramatically compounds the side effects.
- Combining alcohol or other depressant drugs with marijuana increase the impairing effects.

Cocaine

Used medically as a local anesthetic. When abused, it becomes a powerful physical and mental stimulant. The entire nervous system is energized. Muscles tense, heart beats faster and stronger, and the body burns more energy. The brain experiences an exhilaration caused by a large release of neurohormones associated with mood elevation.

Health Effects

- Regular use may upset the chemical balance of the brain. As a result, it may speed up the aging process by causing damage to critical nerve cells. Parkinson's Disease could also occur.
- Cocaine causes the heart to beat faster, harder, and rapidly increases blood pressure. It also causes spasms of blood vessels in the brain and heart. Both lead to ruptured vessels causing strokes and heart attacks.

- Strong dependency can occur with one "hit" of cocaine. Usually mental dependency occurs within days for "crack" or within several months for snorting coke. Cocaine causes the strongest mental dependency of all the drugs.
- Treatment success rates are lower than other chemical dependencies.
- Extremely dangerous when taken with other depressant drugs. Death due to overdose is rapid. Fatal effects are usually reversible by medical intervention.

Workplace Issues

- Extreme mood and energy swings create instability. Sudden noise causes a violent reaction.
- Lapses in attention and ignoring warning signals increases probability of accidents.
- High cost frequently leads to theft and/or dealing.
- Paranoia and withdrawal may create unpredictable or violent behavior.
- Performance is characterized by forgetfulness, absenteeism, tardiness, and missing assignments.

Opioids

- Narcotic drugs which alleviate pain and depress body functions and reactions.

Health Effects

- IV needle users have a high risk of contracting hepatitis or AIDS when sharing needles.
- Increase pain tolerance. As a result, a person may more severely injure themselves and fail to seek medical attention as needed.
- Narcotic effects are multiplied when combined with other depressants causing an increased risk for an overdose.
- With increased tolerance and dependency combined, there is a serious financial burden for users.

Workplace Issues

- Side effects such as nausea, vomiting, dizziness, mental clouding and drowsiness place the user at high risk for an accident.
- Causes impairment of physical and mental functions.

Amphetamines

- Central nervous system stimulant that speeds up the mind and body.

Health Effects

- Regular use causes strong psychological dependency and increased tolerance.
- High doses may cause toxic psychosis resembling schizophrenia.
- Intoxication may induce a heart attack or stroke due to increased blood pressure.
- Chronic use may cause heart or brain damage due to severed constriction of capillary blood vessels.

- Euphoric stimulation increases impulsive and risk taking behavior, including bizarre and violent acts.
- Withdrawal may result in severe physical and mental depression.

Workplace Issues

- Since the drug alleviates the sensation of fatigue, it may be abused to increase alertness during periods of overtime or failure to get rest.
- With heavy use or increasing fatigue, the short-term mental or physical enhancement reverses and becomes an impairment.

Phencyclidine (PCP)

- Often used as a large animal tranquilizer. Abused primarily for its mood altering effects. Low doses produce sedation and euphoric mood changes. Mood can rapidly change from sedation to excitation and agitation. Larger doses may produce a coma-like condition with muscle rigidity and a blank stare. Sudden noises or physical shocks may cause a "freak out" in which the person has abnormal strength, violent behavior, and an inability to speak or comprehend.

Health Effects

- The potential for accidents and overdose emergencies is high due to the extreme mental effects combined with anesthetic effect on the body.
- PCP, when combined with other depressants, including alcohol, increases the possibility of an overdose.
- If misdiagnosed as LSD induced, and treating with Thorazine, can be fatal.
- Irreversible memory loss, personality changes, and thought disorders may result.

Workplace Issues

- Not common in the workplace primarily because of the severe disorientation that occurs.
- There are five (5) phases to PCP abuse:
 1. Acute toxicity causing combativeness, catatonia, convulsions, and coma.
 2. Distortions of size, shape, and distorted perception are common.
 3. Toxic psychosis with visual and auditory delusions, paranoia and agitation.
 4. Drug induced schizophrenia.
 5. Induced depression which may create suicidal tendencies and mental dysfunction.

7-2. Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest

Code of Ethics: Public Employment as a Public Trust.

City employees in performing their duties are required to conduct themselves in an ethical manner at all times. In performing their day-to-day duties and in their many contacts with residents and visitors, City employees should be aware that the impressions of City government are based upon their manner, appearance, speech, and conduct. Consequently, City government is dependent upon standards of reliability, integrity, industriousness, helpfulness, courtesy, efficiency, patience, grooming, dress, and language that are appropriate to the work situation and acceptable to the majority of the community. A public employee away from the job shall have the same rights as any other private citizen insofar as they do not interfere with their performance on the job or undermine the public confidence in the City, the employee, or another City employee.

Conflict of Interest

It is City of Alamogordo's policy that all employees avoid any conflict between their personal interests and those of the City. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the City's honesty and integrity, and therefore its reputation, are not compromised. The fundamental principle guiding this policy is that no employee should have, or appear to have, personal interests or relationships that actually or potentially conflict with the best interests of the City.

It is not possible to give an exhaustive list of situations that might involve violations of this policy. However, the situations that would constitute a conflict of interest in most cases include but are not limited to:

1. Holding an interest in or accepting free or discounted goods or services from any organization, or citizen that does, or is seeking to do, business with the City, or has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or non performance of the employee's official duties;
2. Being employed by (including as a consultant) or serving on the board of any organization which does, or is seeking to do business with the City, or has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or non performance of the employee's official duties;
3. Profiting personally through commissions, loans, grants, expense reimbursements, honorarium, contribution or other payments, from any organization or citizen that does, or is seeking to do business with the City, or has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or non performance of the employee's official duties, for representing, advising, presenting, or assisting in matters within official duties;
4. Misuse of official position or withholding official action on a matter in which they have an outside personal or financial interest;
5. Use of City time, services, equipment, property or facilities for personal and/or financial benefit;
6. Coercion of another employee in any manner which will result in outside personal and/or financial benefit;
7. Giving away or taking for one's self City owned property, property belonging to a citizen, or services outside of typical means addressed in City Ordinances;
8. Solicitation of or acceptance of, directly or indirectly, any gift that benefits the employee's personal or financial interest if it can be reasonably inferred that the gift is intended to influence the employee's actions or judgment, from any organization or citizen which does, or is seeking to do business with the City, or has interests that may be substantially affected by the performance or non performance of the employee's official duties. For the purpose of this section, "gift" includes, but is not limited to: money, property, items of value, services, loans, favors, promises, travel, entertainment, hospitality, and employment, but does not include food and refreshments with a value of less than one hundred dollars ($100) consumed in a day.

9. Disclosure of confidential information gained from City employment if the use or disclosure could result in a financial or personal benefit, unless that information has already become public;
10. Aiding in or not reporting any violation of the Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest policies.

It is the employee's responsibility to report any actual or potential conflict that may exist between the employee (and/or an immediate family member) and the City in writing to the City Manager with a copy to the Department Director at the time any conflict occurs.

Any honorarium or contributions received must be turned over to the Finance Department.

Violations of or complaints relating to this policy must be reported immediately to the City Manager.

Violation of this Policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

7-3. Confidential Information

During the course of work, an employee may become aware of confidential information about City of Alamogordo's business, including but not limited to information regarding City and/or citizen and employee personal information. It is extremely important that all such information remain confidential. Any employee who improperly copies, removes, destroys (whether physically or electronically), uses or discloses confidential information to anyone outside of the City without permission may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Employees may be required to sign an agreement reiterating these obligations.

7-5. Workplace Conduct

City of Alamogordo endeavors to maintain a positive work environment. Each employee plays a role in fostering this environment. Accordingly, we all must abide by certain rules of conduct, based on honesty, common sense and fair play.

Because everyone may not have the same idea about proper workplace conduct, it is helpful to adopt and enforce rules all can follow. Unacceptable conduct may subject the offender to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, in the City's sole discretion. The following are examples of some, but not all, conduct which can be considered unacceptable:

1. Obtaining employment on the basis of false or misleading information.

Obviously, not every type of misconduct can be listed. City of Alamogordo reserves the right to impose whatever discipline it chooses, or none at all, in a particular instance. The City will deal with each situation individually and nothing in this manual should be construed as a promise of specific treatment in a given situation. However, City of Alamogordo will endeavor to utilize progressive discipline but reserves the right in its sole discretion to terminate the employee at any time for any reason.

The observance of these rules will help to ensure that our workplace remains a safe and desirable place to work.

7-6. Health and Safety

The health and safety of employees and others on City property are of critical concern to City of Alamogordo. The City intends to comply with all health and safety laws applicable to our City. To this end, we must rely upon employees to ensure that work areas are kept safe and free of hazardous conditions. Employees are required to be conscientious about workplace safety, including proper operating methods, and recognizing dangerous conditions or hazards. Any unsafe conditions or potential hazards should be reported to management immediately, even if the problem appears to be corrected. Any suspicion of a concealed danger present on the City's premises, or in a product, facility, piece of equipment, process or City practice for which the City is responsible should be brought to the attention of management immediately.

Periodically, the City may issue rules and guidelines governing workplace safety and health. The City may also issue rules and guidelines regarding the handling and disposal of hazardous substances and waste. All employees should familiarize themselves with these rules and guidelines, as strict compliance will be expected.

Any workplace injury, accident, or illness must be reported to the employee's supervisor as soon as possible, regardless of the severity of the injury or accident.

7-7. Hiring Relatives/Employee Relationships

It is the City's policy to avoid the practice or appearance of nepotism through family relations or fraternization in employment. In carrying out this policy, the following family relationship or relationship through fraternization exists between the employees, and either employee:

- A. would have the authority to appoint, remove, correct the action of, evaluate the performance of, or recommend any employment actions or conditions of employment of the other;
- B. is asked to participate in a selection process where another has applied for a position; and/or
- C. is under other circumstances which would place the employees in a situation of actual or reasonably foreseeable conflict between the City's interest and their own.

Should any of the relationships afore-mentioned exist, the employee shall advise their immediate supervisor and immediately withdraw from any conflicting action or processes.

While the City of Alamogordo encourages amicable relationships between members of management and their subordinates, or among members of the same department, it recognizes that involvement in a romantic relationship may compromise or create a perception that compromises an employee's ability to perform his or her job. Any involvement of a romantic nature between a supervisor and anyone he or she supervises, either directly or indirectly, is prohibited.

Any employee in a relationship that may cause the practice or appearance of nepotism in employment shall disclose the relationship in writing to their immediate supervisor immediately. Parties in such relationships may be reassigned at the discretion of the City Manager.

Violations of this policy may result in corrective action up to and including termination.

Immediate Relatives - Includes spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchildren, in-laws, and step and half relatives of the same. This definition shall also include persons related by blood or marriage residing in an employee's home and to persons who have established a relationship by other operation of law or through lifestyle accommodations being equivalent of a marriage or family relationship.

7-8. Professional Dress and Personal Appearance

The appearance and dress of employees is important in creating a favorable image supportive of public confidence. City employees should present a professional demeanor conducive to high work standards and consistent with job duties.

Employees are expected to report to work well groomed, clean, and dressed according to the position requirements. Some employees may be required to wear uniforms or safety equipment/clothing. Please contact your supervisor for specific information regarding acceptable attire for your position. If you report to work dressed or groomed inappropriately, you may be prevented from working until you return to work well groomed and wearing the proper attire.

Uniforms that are supplied to employees by the City shall not be worn off duty and may be subject to tax in compliance with IRS rules.

7-9. Personal Visits and Telephone Calls

Disruptions during work time can lead to errors and delays. Therefore, we ask that personal visits and telephone calls or other correspondence be kept to a minimum or occur preferably, during lunch or break time when ever possible.

7-10. Punctuality and Attendance

Employees are hired to perform important functions at City of Alamogordo. As with any group effort, operating effectively takes cooperation and commitment from everyone. Therefore, attendance and punctuality are very important. Unnecessary absences and lateness are expensive, disruptive and place an unfair burden on fellow employees and supervisors. We expect excellent attendance from all employees. Excessive absenteeism or tardiness will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

We do recognize, however, there are times when absences and tardiness cannot be avoided. In such cases, employees are responsible for notifying their supervisor, through the chain of command, at least one (1) hour before the beginning of their scheduled work period. Asking another employee, friend or relative to give this notice is improper and constitutes grounds for disciplinary action. Employees shall contact their supervisor, stating the reason for the absence and its expected duration, for every day of absenteeism. If the employee knows in advance that he or she will be unable to report, the employee shall seek the supervisor's approval prior to that date. It is essential to give notice as far in advance as possible so that the supervisor can make proper accommodations to provide the services that the department must provide.

Individual departments may establish work rules requiring employees to call in with more than one (1) hour notice based on business necessity.

In cases of a medical or other such emergency the City will accept a call from a friend or relative. The City will evaluate each instance on a case by case basis.

See Section 4-19. Separation From Employment for job abandonment.

7-11. Solicitation and Distribution

To avoid distractions, solicitation by an employee of another employee is prohibited while either employee is on work time. "Work time" is defined as the time an employee is engaged, or should be engaged, in performing his or her work tasks for City of Alamogordo.

Distribution of advertising material, handbills, printed or written literature of any kind in working areas of the City is prohibited at all times.

No City employee shall be required to contribute funds to a community volunteer service or charity drive. Employees wishing to serve as volunteers to collect contributions from other employees will clear it with their Department Director before beginning solicitation.

7-12. Supplementary Employment

The City shall be considered the primary employer for all regular employees. While the City does not prohibit employees from having a second job, secondary employment must not affect the employee's work hours, interfere or conflict with the employee's regular duties, raise any ethical concerns, or necessitate long hours that may impact the employee's working effectiveness.

Employees that are contemplating secondary employment are required to submit a written request for approval, prior to engaging in secondary employment, to their Department Director. The written request should identify the secondary employer, the nature of the duties to be performed, and the anticipated hours the employee will be working. Supplementary employment will include in kind trade and bartering. This request will be promptly answered in writing and a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.

Disclosures of supplementary employment shall be made in writing to the Human Resources Department before entering City employment, and during the month of January every year thereafter. Failure to disclose supplementary employment may result in corrective action.

Employees will be responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged items. The value of any property issued and not returned may be deducted from the employee's paycheck, and the employee may be required to sign a wage deduction authorization form for this purpose.

- A. Suspended without pay for the period of license revocation if ninety (90) calendar days or less;
- B. Demoted with a pay decrease to a non-driving position indefinitely; or
- C. If the suspension or revocation is longer than ninety (90) calendar days, terminated.
- D. Considered for a reasonable accommodation if not detrimental to department operations.

Employees will be subject to termination on the second occurrence of suspension or revocation of his or her driver's license within a five (5) year period, regardless of the time length of the revocation.

Any employee driving a City vehicle or operating City equipment while impaired by alcohol or illegal drugs will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination as outlined in the City of Alamogordo Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace Policy.

Safety Sensitive drivers as defined by the Department of Transportation (D.O.T) are responsible for notifying their supervisor of any prescriptions identified in 21 CFR 1308.11 (391.42 (b)(12)) or any other substance such as amphetamine, a narcotic, or any other habit forming drug. All conversations, text messages and e-mails must be professional. When sending a text message or using a PCD for business purposes, whether it is a City-provided or personal device, employees must comply with applicable City guidelines, including policies on sexual harassment, discrimination, conduct, confidentiality, equipment use and operation of vehicles. Using a City-issued PCD to send or receive personal text messages is prohibited at all times.

Please note that whether employees use their personal PCD or a City-issued device, the City's electronic communications policies, including but not limited to, proper use of communications and computer systems, remain in effect.

Portable Communication Device Use While Driving

Employees who drive on City business must abide by all state or local laws prohibiting or limiting PCD (cell phone or personal digital assistant) use while driving. Further, even if usage is lawful, employees must choose to refrain from using any PCD while driving. "Use" includes, but is not limited to, talking or listening to another person or sending an electronic or text message via the PCD.

Employees who are charged with traffic violations resulting from the use of their PCDs while driving will be solely responsible for all liabilities that result from such actions.

Texting and e-mailing while driving is prohibited in all circumstances.

7-17. Use of Communications and Computer Systems

Employees should notify their supervisor if any equipment, machines, or tools appear to be damaged, defective, or in need of repair. Prompt reporting of loss, damages, defects, and the need for repairs could prevent deterioration of equipment and possible injury to employees or others. Depending upon the circumstances, improper conduct also can include sexual joking, vulgar or offensive conversation or jokes, commenting about an employee's physical appearance, conversation about your own or someone else's sex life, or teasing or other conduct directed toward a person because of his or her gender which is sufficiently severe or pervasive to create an unprofessional and hostile working environment.

If the employee feels that he or she has been subjected to conduct which violates this policy, the employee should immediately report the matter to the employee's supervisor. If unable for any reason to contact this person, or if the employee has not received a response within five (5) business days after reporting any incident of perceived harassment, the employee should contact the Human Resources Office.
